"BE TRUE TO THE DREAMS OF THY YOUTH"

"Be true to the dreams of thy youth." Be true to them. Keep faith in them. And build upon them. For then these dreams may stretch far into all the good pursuits of a lifetime, the years of youth far beyond the present.

Be true to them. How can great things be accomplished, unless first there is a great dream? How can satisfaction be realized, unless first there is a dream to satisfy? Only youth has the freedom to dream great dreams—adulthood can shackle the power to dream with chains of responsibility, duty, fear of tomorrow. A dream abandoned after youth becomes eventually as sad and meaningless as a wilted flower, dead, never to live again. Above all be true to youth's dreams.

Keep faith in them. How else can one believe in them at all? These dreams are the stars by which youth sets its life-course. If these dreams are taken away, adulthood must follow the mercies of shifting winds and tides of time and fortune. Above all, be true to youth's dreams. Keep faith in them.

And build upon them. Now. What other time can there be? Now is the time to lay a foundation of dreams to rest future lives upon. Each of the four years at Central is a cornerstone to bear the weight of future years. Dream well. Act well. Shallow dreams bear nothing but rambling, shapeless existence. Above all, be true to youth's dreams . . . keep faith in them . . . build upon them . . . for then these dreams may stretch far into all the good pursuits of a lifetime; the years of youth far beyond the present . . . to the end of life itself.

Classes

When we are young we long to tread a way none trod before.

Demonstrating the molding of pottery in Mr. Marvin's ceramics class is Bonnie O'Neil. A steady hand and watchful eye aid her as she carefully shapes the bowl, which will soon be ready for firing in the kiln.

Do, re, mi, fa, so, la, ti, 'crack.' As the windows vibrate and the teacher cringes, the chorus class practices. Pictured are the diligent members of this hard-working class, Vicki Bradon, Linda Woods, and Patty Parko.

The choice of classes offered to Central students is greater than that available to students of other high schools. Whether a student is planning to enter college or planning to work immediately after graduation, he can choose the best possible course of study for his purposes. In addition to the required subjects, there is a wide variety of electives which are designed to emphasize special skills.

For the student who feels that he has some artistic ability which he would like to develop, there are several art classes which are available. One of these courses is ceramics which stresses creativity in designing and making pottery and dishes. Interior decorating and art appreciation are two other art courses which interested students may take.

Students who have an interest in music enroll in the chorus and music appreciation classes. These classes give them a chance to improve the quality of their voices and to learn more about music. Many of these students join the glee club and help in the Barnstormer productions.

Many of Central's girls supplement their wardrodes with fashions which they make in the sewing classes. Some girls become quite skilled with a needle and thread and are able to make coats and suits which are very beautiful.

The varied industrial arts courses attract many of Central's boys. In drafting they learn to draw small tools and plan houses. Boys interested in working with wood make small pieces of furniture and scale model homes in wood shop. The operation of grinders and lathes is taught in machine shop, and boys interested in electricity repair radios and learn how to wire a house.

An artist's hands express his feelings. Here, members of Mrs. Butcher's art class portray their thoughts of Christmas. A little paint, a small piece of paper, and a lot of talent go into the making of these decorative cards. At Christmas time and all year long our art classes create their portraits of the seasons.

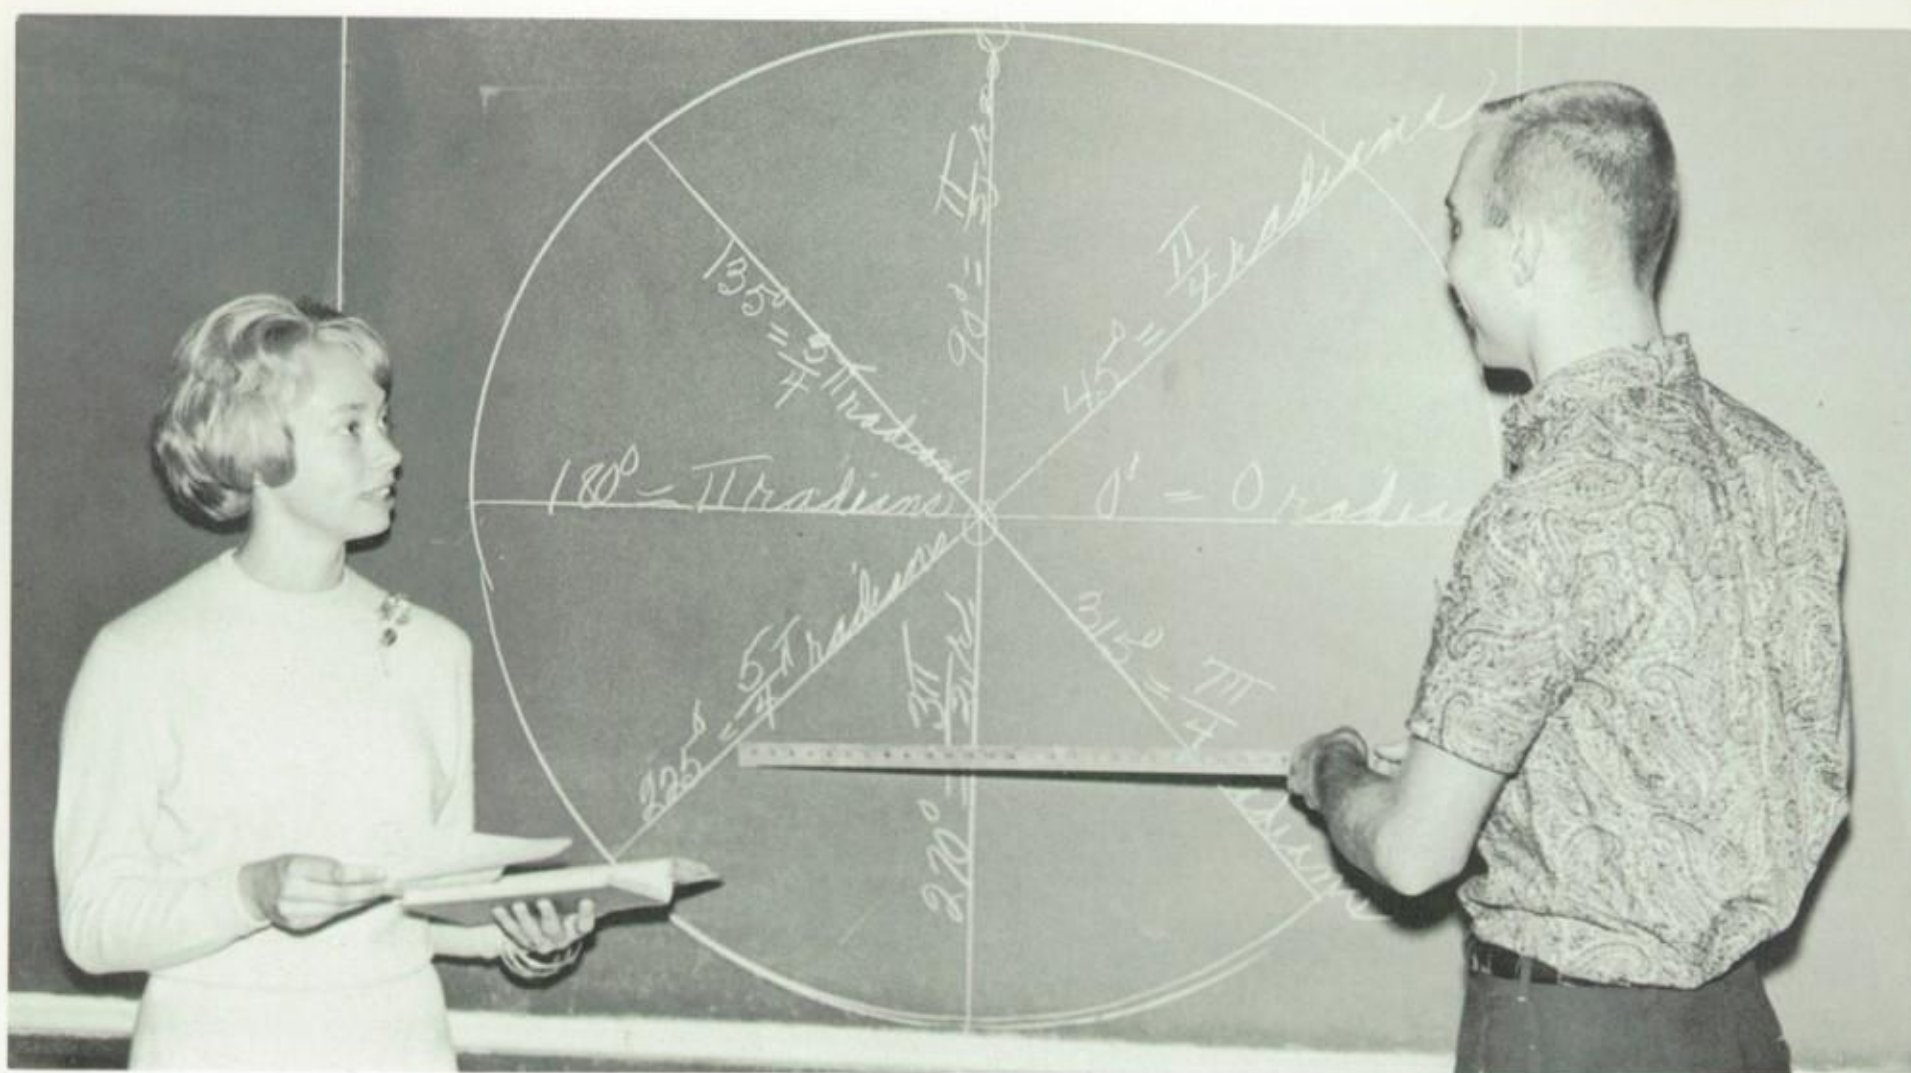

WITH NEW SKILLS COME NEW OPPORTUNITIES

"A stitch in time saves nine." Thus Peggy Lane and Vickie Rozak are learning how to take care of their clothes economically in the future. This is only one of the small things they learn in their sewing classes along with other very helpful hints and basic sewing knowledge.

Bending over their desks, Ted Mason and Bob Swick concentrate on their drafting boards. In this class Mr. Ingram prepares many boys for future work in the fields of architecture and engineering. Although this is mainly a "man's course," some girls give the boys a little feminine competition.

Radians equal 180° . The cosecant is the reciprocal of the sine. These are some of the facts Anne Lovgren and John Costello have learned in their study of trigonometry. Through many hours of studying trig and other mathematics courses, students realize the importance of technical knowledge in this scientific era.

THE THINKING MAN'S COURSES

Charts and other apparatus are employed to make a health course more interesting and understandable. Barb Cook and Andy Lockhart look on as Mr. Emerick uses these devices to explain the principles of respiration.

Buster Millar, Pat Klimishin, and Joe Vogel are in the midst of an experiment with a bell jar and vacuum pump. Pat is checking the experiment while Buster and Joe observe the effect of the vacuum inside the bell jar.

A variety of science courses may be taken at Central, beginning in the freshmen and continuing through the senior year. Biology, chemistry, and physics attract those students who are eager to become prepared for the space age in which the youth of today lives.

Freshmen and sophomores begin their exploration into the field of science through classes in health and biology. If, after a year or two of identifying insects and leaves, the students still have an interest in the field of science, they enter into the more complicated sciences of chemistry and physics where they must learn formulas and do experiments.

Central is proud that it can again boast of a "top boy scientist in the state of Indiana." This honor was bestowed upon Steve Ridgway at the Indiana Junior Academy of Science convention. Steve received this award on the basis of his past achievements in the field of science, and on a paper he submitted concerning a present project. One of his most notable projects has been lunar photography done with an 8 inch reflecting telescope which he constructed.

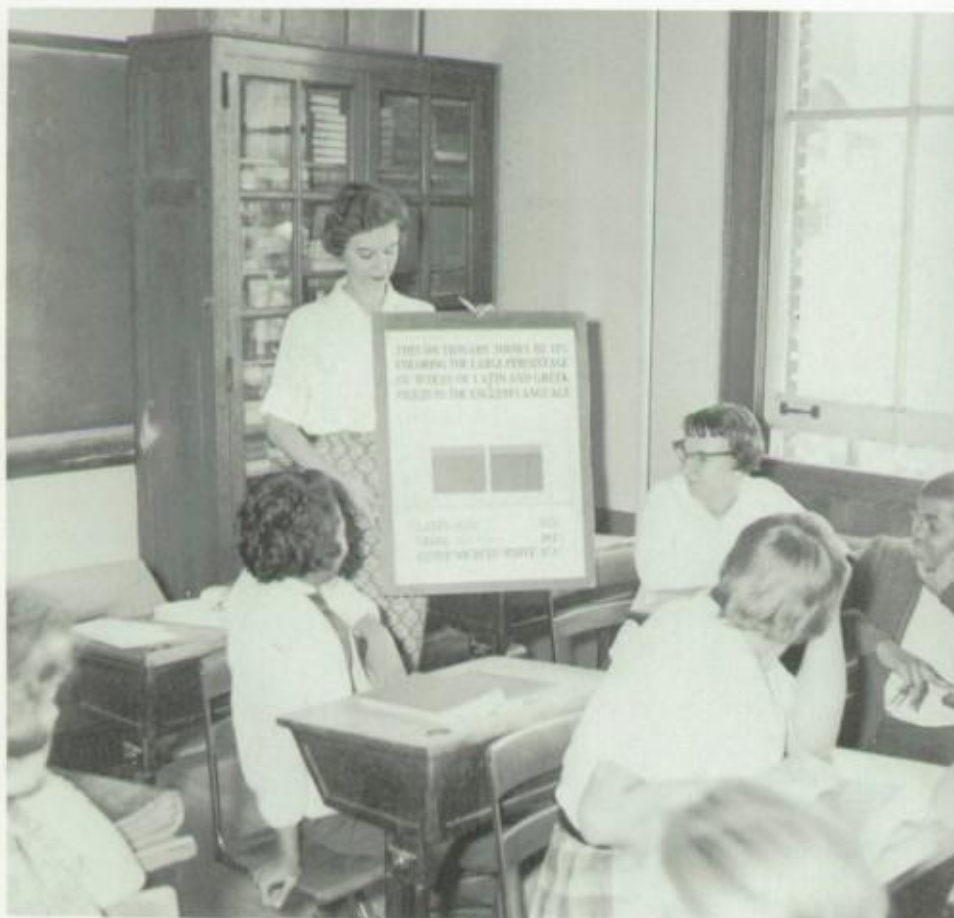

Mrs. Cambell, the chairman of Central's English department, is shown here glancing over the work of one of the students in her English V class. The three pictured here, working on their class assignments, are, from left to right: Andre Smerkanich, Connie Norsworthy, and Toni Richardson.

During the past half century the development of rapid transportation and communication equipment has caused an increased awareness among the public of the cultures of lands other than the United States. The result of this surge of interest has been of greater demand, not only for English, but also for the major foreign languages. It is because of this demand that the Central Language Department exists.

French, Spanish, German, Latin, and, of course, English are the languages offered at Central. A knowledge of French is useful primarily because of the wealth of famous literature published in that language. Spanish is one of the world's most widely spoken tongues. German is beneficial mainly because of the great number of scientific and technical publications written in it, ranging from physics through psychology. Latin, in addition to its classical value, has the merit of being the basis for both French and Spanish. Understanding and a better appreciation of other countries is also gained in studying a foreign language.

All of these factors have been considered in the construction of our new language lab, and they have helped offer to Central students another channel for self improvement, the Language Department.

Parlez-vous francais? Jane Trzybinski doesn't seem too sure whether she does or not. Her French teacher, Miss Ceyak, isn't certain either, but they're both working on it in room 315 during fifth hour. Ah, Paris was never like this . . .

Sociology classes familiarize the students with the problems of our society. Behavior patterns, family and marital problems, the spread and effect of narcotics, and the social problems of the world are a few of the many subjects discussed by Mike Oehler, Sue Graveel, Mr. Schultz, Ethel Sanders, and Nancy Harris.

Central High School is proud of its social studies department. As freshmen, Central students are required to take community civics. This subject introduces the student to high school and the various activities available. It also provides the student with an opportunity to learn the fundamental processes of our society.

World history is the social studies course offered in either the sophomore or junior year. This class acquaints the student with the past civilizations of the world.

U.S. history, a required course in the junior year, gives the student a knowledge of the foundation of our country and also of the great men who fashioned that foundation.

In the first semester of the senior year, the students are required to take American government. In the last semester, they are fortunate to have a choice of three courses: sociology, economics, and international relations. These courses teach the seniors the operation of our government and give them some idea of the problems they will encounter as they enter the adult world.

Field trips and special projects make all these social studies courses more interesting. World history students make cartoons of Ancient Egypt; community civics students visit libraries and the court house to get an idea of how our government works.

United States history is a required subject for all juniors. This course gives the students the opportunity to learn about the beginning of our country and about the men who were responsible for its growth.

Seen locating South Bend on the map are Miss Bucalow, the student teacher from Saint Mary's, John Longnecker, Kathy Botteron, and Ron Hetteson.

ACTIVITIES

Everywhere in life, the true question is not what we gain, but what we do.

Carlyle

Shown looking over the minutes of a Student Council meeting are the leaders of our student government: Diane Newman, treasurer; Julie Cunningham, secretary; Doug Ogden, vice-president; Mike Hall, president; and the faculty adviser, Mr. Kuhny.

The government of Central is in the hands of the Student Council, which consists of one representative from each home room. The Executive Board is chosen from the student senators. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to make improvements throughout the school; they also work with the Booster Club to increase school spirit. Their first project for this year was the Orientation Assembly in which all the clubs had a chance to acquaint the freshmen and new students with their activities. The Student Council Thanksgiving baskets were a great tribute to the generosity of the students and the work put forth by the members of the Council. The other two main projects for the year were student directories and monthly student calendars. No longer is it necessary to wonder which Jones she is. The Student Directory lists all the students with their addresses, telephone numbers, and grades. The Student Calendars, which began coming out in December, list all the activities of interest in the school and city. Both of these are conveniences much desired and well worth the effort. All these accomplishments show just how terrific a Student Council we have at Central.

LEADERS OF TODAY -

LEADERS OF TOMORROW

"Look, I don't know you, but you've got a swingin' name," says Ray Barker. His right hand man is Jim Alexis. Without the student directory the boys could never use this faithful old approach.

Even cleaning can be fun when the job is that of polishing the many Central trophies—our proud possessions gained through the years. Seen here enjoying their work are Sue Levy, Diane Newman, Ron Lizzi, Sue Morrison, and Terry Tarnacki.

After the Queen's Court had been introduced the happy Centralites gathered about the blazing bonfire and did their school yells.

BOOSTERS WORK TO REVIVE "ZIGGY"

The Booster Club is a school sponsored activity to which any student may belong. Its purpose is to back all school activities and to acquaint all students with Central's traditions. It is in charge of the program sale at football games and the sale of basketball season tickets. Besides this the club is responsible for the colorful and amusing pep assemblies for the chief sports events. The Booster Club's biggest accomplishment of the year was the purchase of our new bear costume, which assists the cheerleaders in their cheers. Before the Adams-Central game, the club held the traditional bonfire. The Booster Club's last project of the year was the Spring Sports Spotlight. This dance brings attention to our various spring sports. The Booster Club is the motivating force behind our student body. The officers for this year are Buster Millar, president; Dave Ernsberger, vice president; Sue Graveel, secretary; and Margie Schultz, treasurer. The club's sponsor is Mr. Kuzan.

The Booster Club officers, Dave Ernsberger, Margie Schultz, Sue Graveel, and Buster Miller, are shown with our new bear costume.

A group of ambulance drivers in World War II were the originators of the American Field Service program. These men thought that knowledge of one another was necessary in understanding between people of different countries. When they first started this organization, the ambulance drivers probably had no idea that it would expand to the proportions that it has today. For example, last year 1,847 foreign students from 50 countries came to live in the United States, and 1,240 Americans went abroad to 28 different countries. The friendships gained through these programs are valuable examples of brotherhood in the world today.

By participating in the American Field Service program, the students at Central can do much to promote better international relations. This year we were able to learn about Italy from our exchange student Danni Borsero while she learned about the United States from us.

Dianne Haley and Danni Borsero talk over the experiences that they have had while being American Field Service exchange students. Dianne is showing Danni her pancho, a souvenir from her summer in Chile, while Danni gives Dianne a glimpse into the life of Italy.

Miss Hatt, head of American Field Service, is shown talking to Sherry Walsh and Carol Zimmerman about the Christmas cards the foreign exchange students made. These cards were sold to Central students and people wishing to express their season's greetings in a warm and friendly way.

John West, Honorable Mention

John West, Wanda Welch, Frank Mindykowski, Mark West, Michel Pawlowski, and Richard Alasko seem to be having fun while they work. They are shown making the animal masks which were worn in the Hunter's Funeral scene from "Sand and Steel," this year's senior play. Much work is put into designing and executing the costumes for any Barnstormer presentation, because although a costume may look drab and common in the daylight, under the soft glow of the footlights and spotlights, it becomes a beautiful creation.

The Barnstormers, under the very competent direction of Mr. James Lewis Casaday, have had a very successful year. In addition to utilizing their talents in the presentation of several pep assemblies, they also presented three plays, "Land of Smiles," "Sand and Steel," and "The Miser."

"Land of Smiles" was the first play to be presented. This was the premiere performance for the Franz Lehar operetta and it proved to be a great success. Many talented people were involved in this production, because it combined the efforts and talents of the students in the orchestra, the Glee Club, and Barnstormers.

The senior play "Sand and Steel" was an original revue about the Dunes and was written by members of Barnstormers and the senior class. The idea for a play about the Dunes was first suggested by Mr. Arthur Smith, a Central biology teacher. The students began writing the revue last summer and used the legends of the Dunes and the present question of whether to build a seaport or have the Dunes for a recreation area.

In the spring, the Barnstormers presented the French play "The Miser" by Molière. Michel Pawlowski, a senior, had the leading role in the comedy.

"LAND OF SMILES," DEBUT IN THE U.S.

This scene from "Land of Smiles" perfectly illustrates the number of people that were a part of the successful Franz Lehar operetta. Not all of the people pictured are permanent Barnstormer members but rather are members of the Glee Club. This picture also gives a good idea of the work that must be done behind the scenes — designing costumes and scenery, and then painting the scenery and actually getting the material and executing the costume designs.

In a scene from "Sand and Steel," John West, Roberta Metz, Leo Ward, Dianne Haley, Margie Schultz, and Jim Alexis point out examples of the types of trees which Michel Pawlowski tells them are to be found in the Dunes. The senior play also gave a short history of the Dunes, described the types of insects that can be found there, related the strange legends that are connected with the Dunes, and presented arguments both for and against an Indiana seaport.

"SAND AND STEEL," AN ORIGINAL REVUE

The Legend of the Silver Arrow, a legend which is related to the Dunes, was included in the senior class revue of the Dunes, "Sand and Steel." Leo Ward portrayed the Indian warrior who never returned from a hunting party.

Shelly Ackerman portrayed the Indian maiden who avenged the death of her warrior by killing the murderer with a silver arrow fashioned from a cross which had been given to her by a priest.

Every year the Central High School Band starts marching practice the last week in August for their trip to Riverview. On this trip they compete against other bands in marching and playing. This started the season off for our band.

We all know how hard our band works to get football shows for half-time ready. Bright and early every morning our faithful band marches down the street at 7:30 A.M. to Leeper Park. Here, Mr. Arthur Singleton, the band's director, helps them put the show together. After going over the same routine at least a million times that morning, they wearily march back to school, barely making it in time for second hour.

As soon as football season is over, the band starts working on more serious music. They then work out their Winter Concert. Since this is generally the first concert of the year for them, they have to work especially hard.

The Spring Concert in March rounds out a busy year for Central's excellent band.

From the band comes the "pep band." They had extra rehearsals outside of regular band rehearsals so they could play for all our pep assemblies and basketball games. The "dance band" is another group organized from the band. They have always played very well, but this was the first year they were available for Soc Hops and other social affairs.

The band also participated in a Band Contest. They competed against many other bands and did quite well. Through the year they also worked on music for their annual "POP CONCERT." This is the biggest concert of the year when Senior soloists and the dance band are featured.

Besides all of this they gave a Spring Concert and marched in various parades.

IN THE SERIOUS AND NOT SO SERIOUS

The Central High School Orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Zeal Fisher, is kept very busy throughout the school year with a number of activities. The fifty-two member group participates in concerts, shows, assemblies, festivals, and contests.

Each year the orchestra presents two concerts: one in the winter and one in the spring. The winter concert consists primarily of classical music; the spring concert, on the other hand, is composed of lighter music.

This year's show was "The Land of Smiles," a combined production by the Barnstormers, orchestra, and glee club. The orchestra provided excellent accompaniment to a delightful show. Selected members were chosen to play, and they spent many hours rehearsing for the show.

The orchestra also participates in the National Honor Society inductions each semester and in the baccalaureate and commencement services in June.

Heading the activities of the orchestra are, standing, Sharon Wesner, president, Charles Romine, band representative, Barbara Harnisch, spring concert soloist, and, seated, Ursel Haffer, secretary, Debrah Harris, vice-president.

Each year the various orchestras of South Bend's schools present two festivals or combined concerts. Chosen members from each of the orchestras form a composite group and play together. One such festival is presented to the members of the North Central Teachers Association in October, and another, in March, is open to the public. Money earned from these and other events is used to help buy equipment and defray transportation expenses.

One of the highlights for the orchestra each year is a series of contests through which individuals and the group can gain recognition for their work. One group of contests is for solo players and ensembles, and another contest is for the entire orchestra. The contests for the soloists and ensemble players are divided into local, district, and state competitions, with local winners moving on to the district tourney, and then the district winners advancing to the state finals. This year a number of Central's musicians scored high and went on to the state tourney.

The show strings worked hard along with the glee club to provide the music for the "Land of Smiles." Here Mr. Fisher and some of the orchestra members practice their music. They are, left to right, Carolyn Woods, Betty Orr, Mike Humnicky, Nancy Barr, Mr. Fisher, Sharon Wesner, Ursel Haffer, Carol Jaroszewski, Jacqueline Smith.

THROUGH SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

Also in the third row are S. Daum, S. Bowers, C. Woods, E. Sparks, W. McDonald, D. Bliley, L. Ward, M. Vanderveer, E. Speake, M. De-Buysser. In the fourth row are H. Jenkins, B. Murrmann, T. Barrett, B. Inwood, N. Masters, J. Bliley, P. Nowakowski, J. Perkins, C. Daube, L. Marshman, F. Smith, J. Braders, M. Martin, G. Klockow, B. Ernst, J. Hawkins, J. Johnson, Willard Klein, J. Ferrell, A. Lockhart, D. Tate, L. Warbington, T. Bolinger, J. Robaska, C. Townsend. Missing in the picture are P. Aughinbaugh, P. Kovacs, M. Kaman, J. Horton, M. Pawlowski, P. Kepschull, J. Pegues, E. Szucs.

The Central Glee Club is a group of "early birds" who enrich our musical appreciation. As early as 7:15 their voices are raised in song. Mr. William R. Chapman directs the approximately ninety voices.

This year has been an extremely busy one. In the fall the Glee Club sang at the National Honor Society Assembly. Their voices added much to the occasion. The big undertaking of the year was the chorus and solo work in "The Land of Smiles." The entire Glee Club took part and starring roles were done by Leo Ward, John Shimer, Michelle Ackerman, Eunice Speake, Patricia Peci, and Marilyn DeBuysser. Phyllis Auginbaugh, Jeff Perkins, Dick Bliley, and Bill Murrman also had singing roles. This organization also presented our annual Christmas Assembly on the last day before Christmas vacation and sang carols in the halls. They also presented their own TV program on WSBT and took part in a carol sing with all the South Bend high schools.

The members of the Glee Club are selected from the chorus classes that meet first, third and fifth hour.

The Glee Club Concert in March featured Central soloists in selections from the Messiah, sacred acapella choruses and songs from the musical "Carousel." An Easter assembly, Baccalaureate and Commencement performances finished the Glee Club's yearly activities.

Mr. Chapman, Central's new chorus teacher, is shown leading the early morning glee club rehearsal. With sleep in their eyes the members of the glee club come early in order to practice for their appearances at various times. Here they are rehearsing for their first appearance in the National Honor Society Assembly.

UNDER NEW DIRECTOR

One of the more recently organized school sponsored clubs is the Future American Business Society, better known to Central students as FABS. The club is open to all business students and its main objective is to familiarize the members with phases of business which are not usually discussed in the school's commercial courses. Speakers are invited to the meetings to describe the various jobs which are available and the qualifications necessary for obtaining them. The members are also able to see demonstrations of the newest complex office machinery by competent operators. This year's officers are Diane Baker, president; Janice Brinley, vice president; Vicki Rozek, secretary; and Joyce Little, treasurer. The faculty sponsor of FABS is Mr. Garland Williams.

The members of the Future Teachers are some of the busiest students at Central. This club is for all girls who are interested in pursuing some career in education after graduation. Annual projects of the club are giving teas for the faculty in the fall and in the spring. This year the girls did charity work at the TB League and also provided a basket of food for a needy family at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Some of the seniors did cadet teaching, and all members were at the disposal of the teachers for grading papers or doing filing. Mrs. Mary Heritage is the faculty sponsor. The officers are Karen Langell, president; Sandy Raabe, vice-president; Jackie Rossow, secretary; and Carolyn Forrest, treasurer.

The Future Nurses' Club is available to any student who is interested in some phase of medicine for a career or for any student who would like to learn more about medicine and its related fields. The members are able to hear qualified speakers give them information relating to their particular career, and they are also able to see movies at various times throughout the year. Any girl who is sixteen may participate in the Candy Stripper program of either St. Joseph or Memorial Hospital. As Candy Strippers they work in the hospitals during the meal time and help the nurses feed the patients. This year the club provided baskets of food for needy families and sold TB pins at the Notre Dame Games. Many of the girls toured the hospitals and talked to the student nurses to learn something of the nursing schools. At the end of the year, pins are presented to the girls who have participated in the projects throughout the year. Jackie Nowak headed the club this year with the assistance of Charlotte Kise, vice president; Gwen Strandberg, secretary; and Lynn DeBuysser, treasurer. Mrs. Margaret Foulks is the faculty sponsor.

Testing eyes, one of the many duties of a school nurse, is being observed by Gwen Strandberg, Jackie Nowak, and Charlotte Kise, members of the Future Nurses' Club.

"Now I can help Dad with his income tax," exclaims Diane Baker, president of the Future American Business Society. Looking on are Vicki Rozek, Janice Brinley, and Joyce Little. As knowledge in the principles of accounting will help in the annual filing of income tax returns, so will the other skills learned in this organization.

BOOKS AND RESEARCH ARE OUR REALM

The Library Club concerns itself with aiding Mrs. Phelps, and her staff, in the various facets of library work. Members of the club sacrifice their study halls for the club, so that they may assist students in the library during classtime. In addition to this work, Library Club members help to shelve returned books, repair old books, and review new books.

Competing in various speech and debate tourneys is the favorite pastime of the Central Debate Team, and our trophy cases are none the worse for it. Under the guidance of Mr. Poorbaugh, President Ollie Seeler, Vice-presidents Al Larson and Steve Ridgeway, Secretary Bill Renforth, and Treasurer Ben Violette head the group.

"And further more, if it were not for . . ." resounds the voice of Ollie Seeler as he demonstrates how tactful a debate must be. Listening intently are Bill Renforth, Steve Ridgeway, Robin Wright and Al Larson.

Under the leadership of Miss Betty Mathews, the Girls' Athletic Association has helped many girls to stay fit and learn the principles of sportsmanship and fair play. The girls participate in sports such as volley ball, basketball, swimming, tumbling, table tennis, bowling, and softball. In some of these sports intramural competitions are held and an awards banquet is held in the spring. The G.A.A. also holds a tea each year for parents, faculty, and alumnae, and engages in service work such as decorating goal posts and Christmas trees. To help guide all of those activities are the officers: Sharon Morris, president; Madelyn Love, vice-president; Sharon Town, intramural head; Lovell Walker, point recorder Wanda Welch and Beverly Coleman, publicity.

Central's Usher Club is a hardworking service organization that performs a necessary, but often thankless, task. The boys, directed by Mr. Bendit, are invaluable guides for all school events. Their courtesy and efficiency are admired by students and adults alike.

Who puts the pep into the pep assemblies? Who puts the zest into the cheers and excites the spirit of both the team and the spectators? The answer is Central's corps of cheerleaders. This year's varsity cheerleaders are Gloria McCoy, captain; Anne Lovgren, Sue Grainger, Sally Wheelock, Connie Norsworthy, and Sue Kristowski. At seven o'clock every school day, these six girls are at school to perfect the old cheers and learn new ones. During the football games they freeze because of the cold, and during the basketball games they almost roast; but their biggest problem is arousing the school spirit in the student body. The outcome of the game isn't as important as the fact that the students realize the team did its best. It's the cheerleaders' duty to see that there is not any booing or harassing of the referees.

There is also a group of nine girls who are the B-team cheerleaders. These are the future varsity cheerleaders who learn the cheers and urge the B-team football and basketball players to victory. This year's B-team cheerleaders are Kaye Sandine, capt.; Elaine Zuroff, Jill Cote, Edna Boone, Patt Molenda, Barbara Cook, Marcia Fisher, Jackie Barcome, and Lovell Walker. The sponsor of both of these groups is Miss Betty Mathews.

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y IS THE CENTRAL BATTLECRY!

Our J.E.T.S. club wins many honors through their scientific achievements. Here the J.E.T.S. officers, Fred Stone, first mate; Steve Ridgway, captain; Connie Crawford, navigator; and Larry Johns, communications officer, proudly view their latest trophy.

The Junior Engineering and Technical Society keeps the young scientists and technicians informed of the opportunities for scientific careers. This year's officers are Stephen Ridgway, captain; Fred Stone, first officer; Larry Johns, communications officer; and Connie Crawford, navigator. Under the guidance of their sponsor, Mr. Cripe, they take field trips and bring in guest speakers to their meetings. Central's J.E.T.S. hold membership in the Junior Academy of Science and the national J.E.T.S. group. There are about forty members; many have distinguished themselves in state-wide competition.

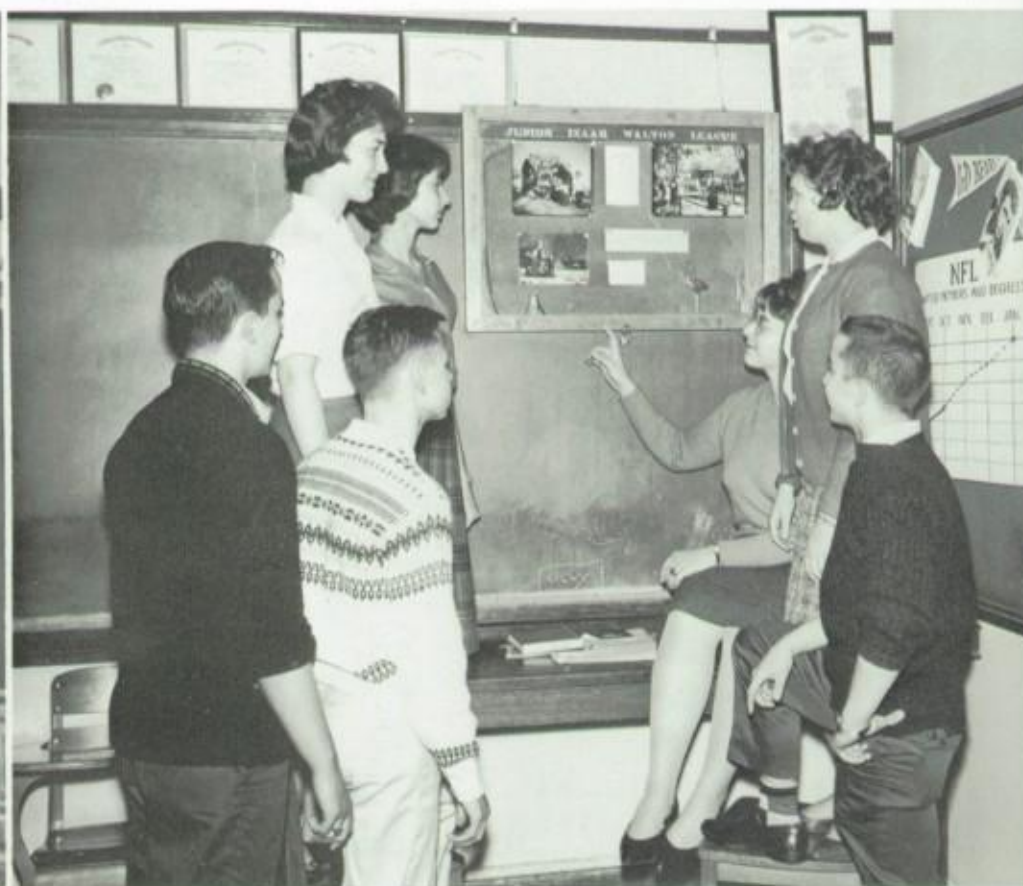

Central's Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Ceyak, enriches the language education of its membership. Not only does their ability to use the language improve by conducting the meetings in Spanish, but they also learn the customs and traditions of the people in Spanish-speaking countries. The officers of the Spanish Club are Martha Nick, president; Roberta Balsley, vice-president; Nancy Harris, secretary; Jeffery Perkins, treasurer; and Becky Ponder, social chairman.

The Junior Izaak Walton League, which is dedicated to the conservation of wildlife and resources, is affiliated with South Bend Izaak Walton League. They sponsor field trips to interesting natural locations in our area. Their sponsor is Mr. Poorbaugh and their officers are Pat Culp, president; Beverly Bednar, vice-president; Betty Rhoads, secretary; Sharen Keltz, treasurer, and Bob Crouch, sergeant-at-arms.

THROUGH OUR ACTIVITIES WE MEET

In keeping with the spirit of Spain, the Spanish Club made a piñata. The members here proudly view their handwork.

One of the most active organizations at Central is the Art Service Club. It handles many projects, ranging from the painting of posters in the main hall to helping with sets for the Barnstormer productions. Sponsoring the Art Service Club this year was Mrs. Butcher. The officers are Mary Jay Hruska, president; Leroy Allen, vice-president; Margaret Coen, secretary; Beverly Bednar, treasurer; Bob Seifert, social chairman; Janet Miller, publicity; Diane Handley, posters; and Carol Cuthbertson and Jean Snyder, special projects.

What is it that students look forward to most anxiously? It is the appearance of a member of the Audio-Visual Club. With their movies, tape recordings, and slides they liven up all classes which enjoy their services. All members are required to know how to operate all the equipment. Mr. Marvin was the sponsor. The club was led this year by Charles Winebrenner with Ted Raker serving as both secretary and treasurer.

The Tri-Hi-Y is an all girl activity sponsored by the YWCA. After joining the Tri-Hi-Y one can participate in such activities as car washes, bake sales, and parties. Tri-Hi-Y strives to develop such traits as tolerance and ability to judge wisely. Other purposes are to establish friendly relations with others. The officers were Carol Ludwig, president; Jean Lauder, vice-president; Nancy DeLeu, secretary; Betty Louis, treasurer; Kathy Major, chaplain; and Jackie Rau, sergeant-at-arms. The club sponsor was Miss Marie Kruckel.

The 1961 Football Queen was crowned during half-time of the Central-Adams football game. Unfortunately, it rained all day and by evening the playing field was nothing but a pool of mud. The suspense began growing in the stands as soon as the teams left the field and it continued growing as the two courts were brought onto the field in open convertibles provided by the various South Bend car dealers. After the courts and their escorts were introduced to the raincoat-clad crowd, there was a slight pause before the queen's name was announced and during that time the suspense reached its highest point. "The 1961 Central Football Queen is Miss Anne Lovgren." There was a great roar of applause from Central's side as Anne was crowned as our queen, and then there was the same applause from the Adams' side as their queen was announced. After the queens exchanged roses, they and their courts left the field, having added another highlight to an exciting year.

All those who braved the cold to see this year's Central-Adams game also witnessed the crowning of our queen, Anne Lovgren. Doug Ogden, vice-president of the Student Council, is shown placing the crown on her head.

HIGHLIGHT OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL CAREER

The smiling faces of this year's football queen's court reflect the happiness of this event. This is one of the most coveted honors any girl can receive. The members of this year's court and their escorts were Daniela Borsero and Fred Stone, Sharlene Hoke and Al Kristowski, Deedee Kern and Phil Minnes, Fred Schulz and Carolyn Sacchini, Queen Anne Lovgren and Bob Swick, Sally Wheelock and Jim Alexis, Margie Badowski and Tom Underly, Sue Grainger and Terry Tarnacki, Connie Norsworthy and Wade Hughes.

Our representatives on the 1962 basketball court are seen here at Washington School after the halftime ceremony. The members of the court are as follows: Linda Woodard and escort Bill McIntyre, Diane Newman and Doug Ogden, Sue Graveel and Mike Hall, Queen Margie Schultz and Ted Mason, Jill Cote and Ray Barker, Jackie Papay and Ron Lizzi, Sherry Walsh and Cliff Cunningham, Joyce Little and Baillie Dunlap.

THRILL OF BEING "QUEEN FOR A NIGHT"

As half-time of the Central-Washington game draws near, very few students leave the gym because this is the game at which the 1962 Basketball Queen will be chosen from the eight candidates on the court. A slight undertone of whispering can be detected as the candidates and their escorts are introduced. Some of the students are commenting on the girl's suits, some are naming their choice for queen, and still others are trying to decide who the lucky Washington girl will be. The tension and suspense reaches a high pitch between the time that the courts are introduced and the time that the announcer begins. "The 1962 Central Basketball Queen . . ." he pauses for a moment and everyone in the crowd takes a deep breath, ". . . is Margie Schultz." A great roar of applause is heard as Buster Millar, Booster Club president, and the Central Bear present Margie with her crown and roses. Then it is suddenly quiet again as the Washington students go through the same suspense and joy. The queens have the traditional exchange of roses, and then they and their courts majestically leave the gym.

This picture reveals the thrill of being "queen for a night." Margie Schultz happily leaves the floor escorted by Ted Mason after having been crowned Central's 1962 basketball queen.

The life of Central High School is revealed in the weekly publications of the Interlude newspaper. Its readers are able to see what we are and what we do. Anne and her staff work hard to give Centralites the latest in news plus thought-provoking editorials. Our newspaper is an important part of our school life. The business staff is always busy obtaining ads, sending out bills, and circulating the finished product. During the week the office at the end of the third floor is buzzing with activity. On Fridays the result is seen as everyone rushes to his home room to catch up on the latest happenings.

Every other Friday, the paper must come out! In order to make certain that all the names are spelled correctly and no one is left out, Anne Lovgren, editor-in-chief, and Miss Korb, faculty advisor, must proofread the entire paper before it goes to press.

Did all the ads get in? Will the paper be out on time? These are all questions that face the business staff of the Interlude newspapers, Linda Woodard, Squeak Wiltrout, and Peggy Johnson.

TO KEEP US INFORMED

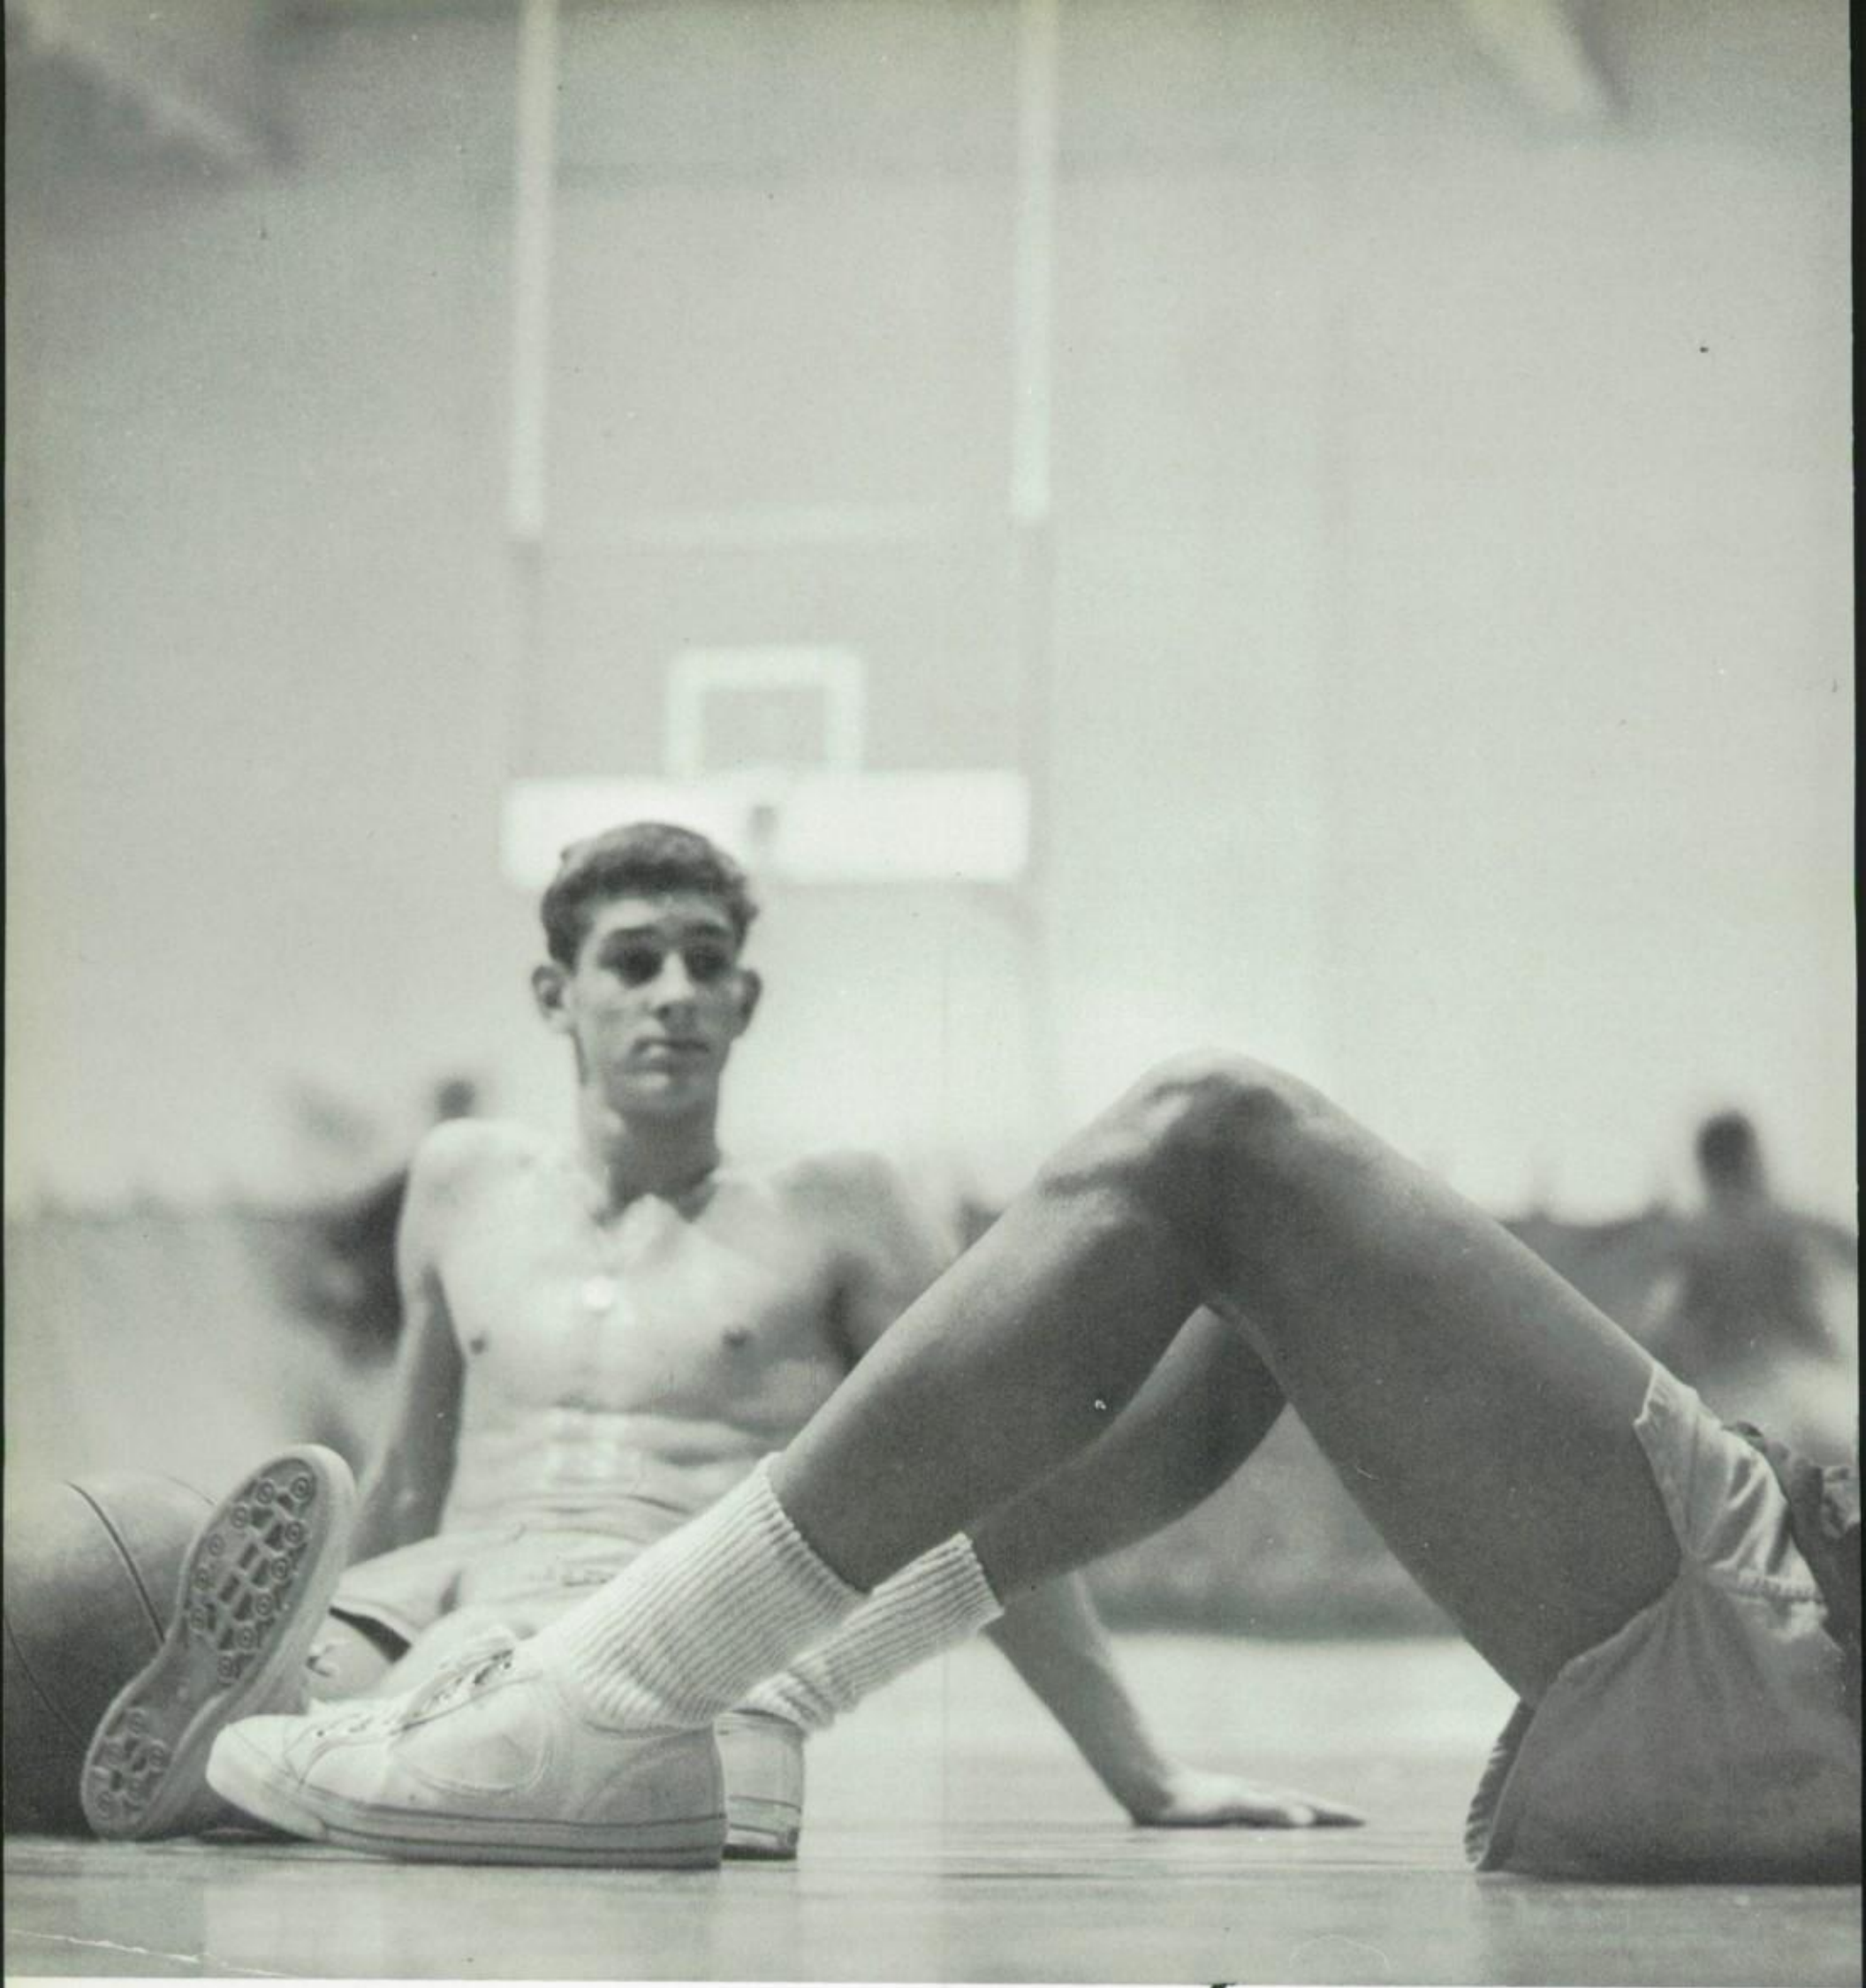

Providing a yearbook for an ever-changing Central is the often difficult task of the year-book staff and its advisor, Mr. Merriman. A good yearbook staff must be flexible enough to adjust to changes in the school; yet it must be efficient enough to work cooperatively and efficiently.

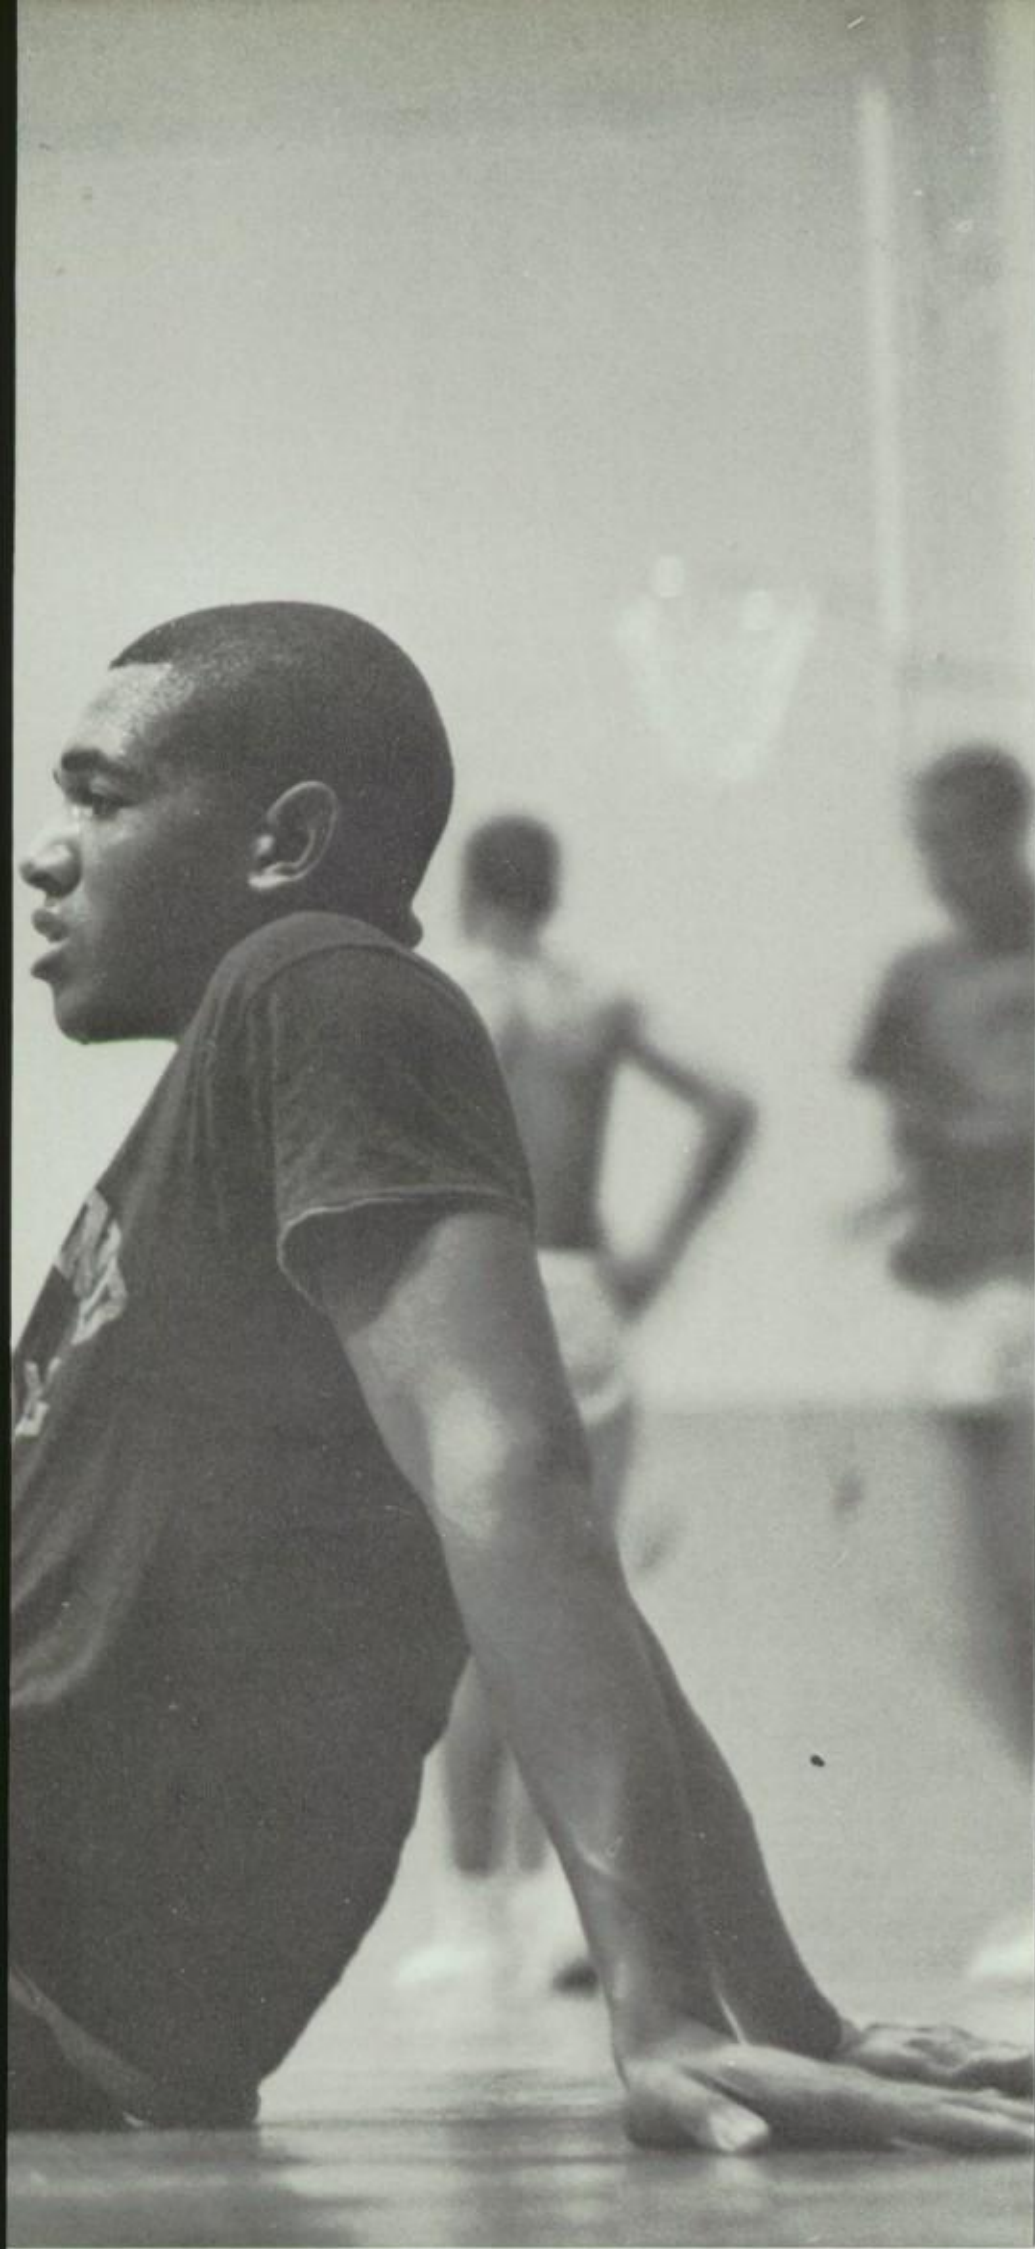

In order to maintain a high standard of quality, it is necessary for the staff to work diligently throughout the school year. In the fall, the emphasis is on gaining as many orders as possible for the yearbook, and for advertisements, to provide working capital with which to meet the high costs of producing this book. During the winter most of the work on the book staff is done; copy is written and edited, pictures are taken, compiled, and captioned, and dummy sheets are prepared. In the spring, the publishers work is checked and final changes are made. The yearbook is printed, and then the job of distributing it completes the work, usually near the end of the school year.

The result of all this work, time, money, advice, and at times panic, is a reflection of Central's classes and student life. It is your yearbook.

Mr. Merriman, supervising the yearbook for the first time this year, checks some copy with the editor, Sue Grainger. Mr. Merriman and Sue had a lot of studying to do in order to acquaint themselves with the details of putting together a yearbook.

Kotoske, C. Walton, C. Owens, L. Rhodes, M. Foohey, J. Mackowiack, defensive coach; B. Jones, head coach.

JONESMEN COMPILE FINE 7-2 RECORD

Seven wins and two losses—that was the fine record compiled by Central's 1961 varsity football team. Although the Bears did not have the spectacular amount of talent that some of the teams of the past had, they made up for it by hard work and a determination to win.

The first to feel the extent of this determination was a rugged St. Joseph team. The Bears, led by co-captains Mike Foohey and Mike Hall, won the game 20-13 after unleashing a furious running attack, which featured a 71 yard punt return and touchdown by Central's All-conference halfback, Dean Howard.

Next on the agenda was Fort Wayne Central Catholic; the Bears' offense flattened the Fort Wayne team, grinding out 238 yards rushing for their 73. Conference scoring champion, Dean Howard, made two touchdowns and four extra points; Joe Basker and Gerald Stull also scored, Basker on a 56 yard punt return and Stull on a 16 yard pass from Ron Seifert. The final score was 28-12.

The Bears' third victim was LaPorte. The Slicers failed to score against Central's 13 points, after Dean Howard turned the tables on them and sliced through their line for 156 yards on only fourteen carries.

The Bruins, continuing in their winning ways, defeated Riley, 21-14, in a hard-fought battle that remained undecided until late in the fourth quarter. Ron Seifert's aerial gain proved to be the winning factor for the Bears.

Central was now ranked third in the state, but city rival Washington wasn't far behind. The Panthers, destined for the conference championship, managed to move up a notch by handing the Bears their worst upset of the year, 28-0.

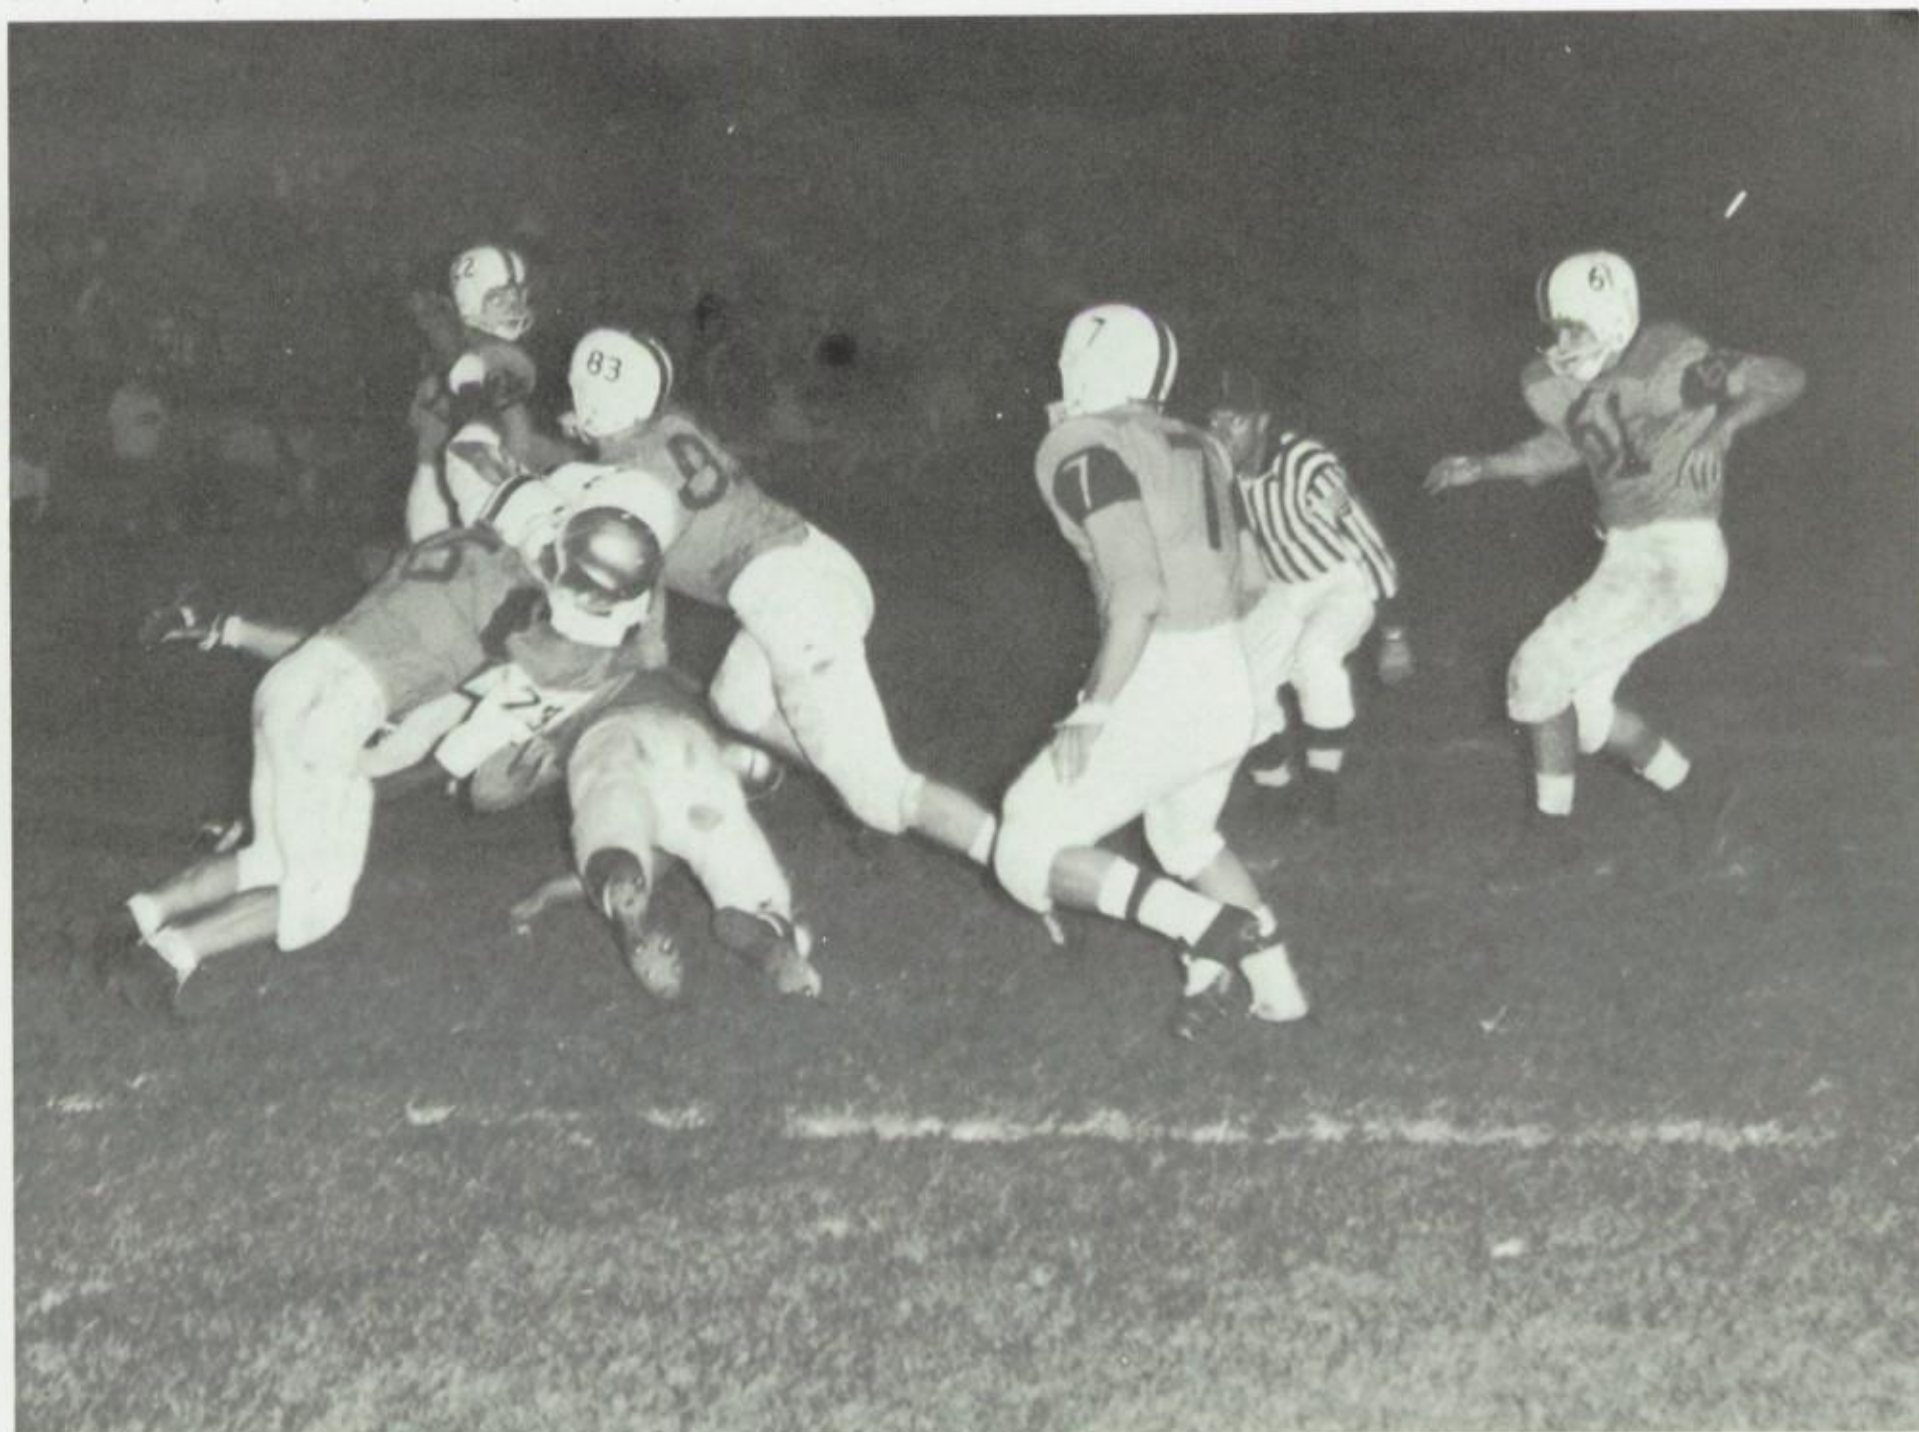

Gloom disappeared the following week, however, as Central solidly defeated Fort Wayne North Side, 25-14. The game was something of a grudge match, for it was Fort Wayne who had snapped our 24 game winning streak the previous year.

The Bears were out-scored but certainly not out-played when they battled Mishawaka to a 19-13 loss. Mishawaka took an early lead of 13-0, before Mike Foohey brought the Bears back with a 16 yard scoring pass, with only two minutes left in the half; but before the first half ended, Mishawaka attacked from deep within their own territory and scored a miraculous touchdown after time had run out. The Cavemen, who were on Central's 10 yard line with seconds to play, lined up quickly and a Central man was caught off sides. The penalty enabled them to have another play in which they passed for a 5 yard score.

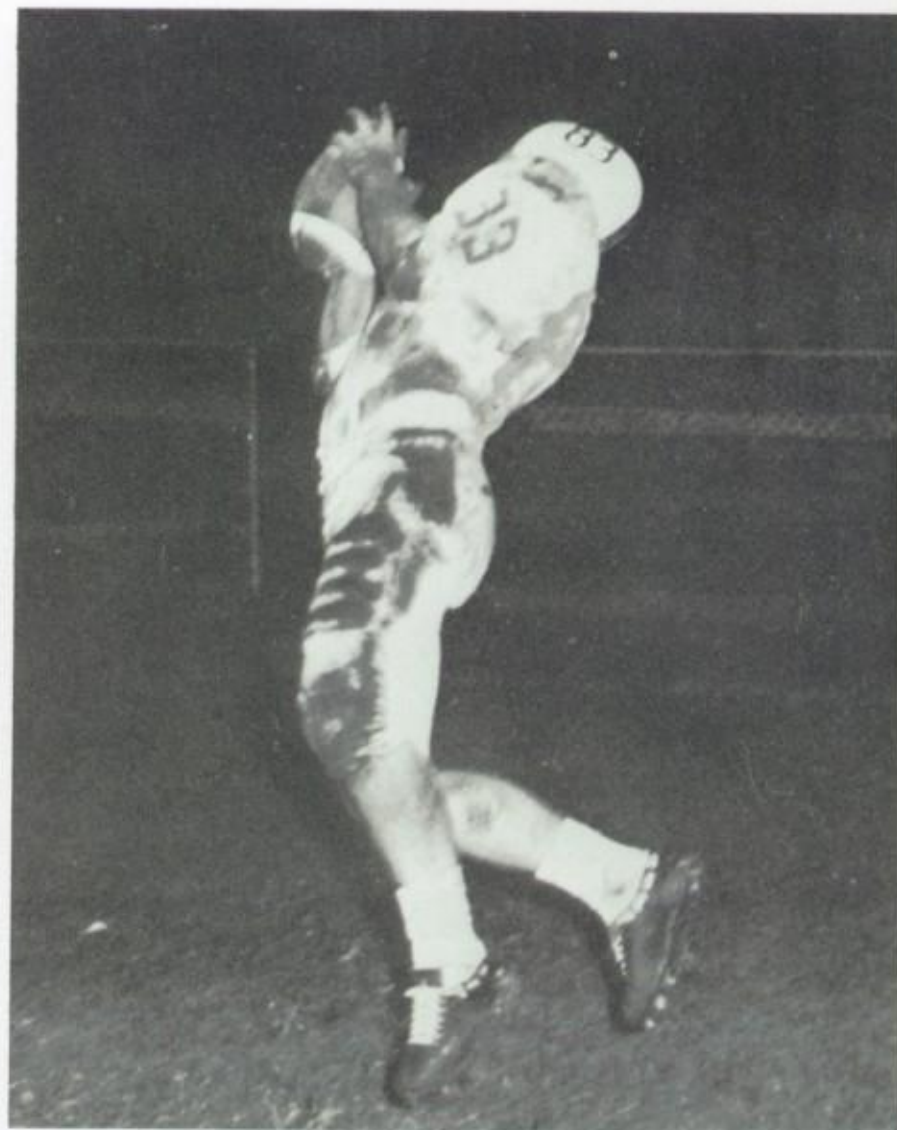

These four men are more responsible for our success in varsity football than the fine players they coach. They have kept our football teams winning for years and the end seems nowhere in sight. Central High School says thanks for a job well done!! The coaches are from left to right: Ross Stephenson, backfield coach; Ed Szucs, line coach; Bob Jones, head coach; Joe Mackowiak, defensive coach.

Central tacklers, Ron Lizzi, and Gerry Miltenberger made this unusual tackle of an Adams' runner during the final quarter of the Eagle-Bear contest. Central completely dominated Adams, scoring all 27 points in the first half. The ice-chilled fans saw Howard, Kruger, Foohey, and Basker score successive touchdowns early in the game.

Central's all conference Mike Foohey is shown catching a touchdown pass from quarterback Ron Seifert during the Mishawaka game. Although basically a running team, Central proved to be a real passing threat when either Ron Seifert or Dean Howard passed to ends Mike Foohey and Gerald Stull.

Vicious tacklers, such as those pictured here, were a trademark of the Bears' rugged defense, which dominated teams with bigger lines throughout the season. Opponents averaged a little over 12 points per game while the Bears collected 19. Shown smearing Washington's Al Carothers after a short gain are Mike Hall (65), Mike Foohey (83), and Ray Barker on the ground. Joe Basker (22) is in the background while Ron Seifert (7) and Buster Millar (61) prepare to give assistance.

Almost everyone knows a team's offensive lineup, but how many Central fans know the Central defensive unit and the position of each player. Pictured above is the 1961 starting defensive team. Although relatively small in football circles, the team was well known for its alertness and rugged tactics. Larger lines found the Bear defensive line almost immovable and impenetrable deep in

Early in the third quarter Dean Howard brought the Central fans to their feet with a 65 yard scoring run. With only two minutes left in the game, the Bears got the ball on their own 34 yard line and drove to the Mishawaka 8 yard line. With two seconds left Ron Seifert passed to Howard, but the pass was broken up and Mishawaka escaped with a narrow victory.

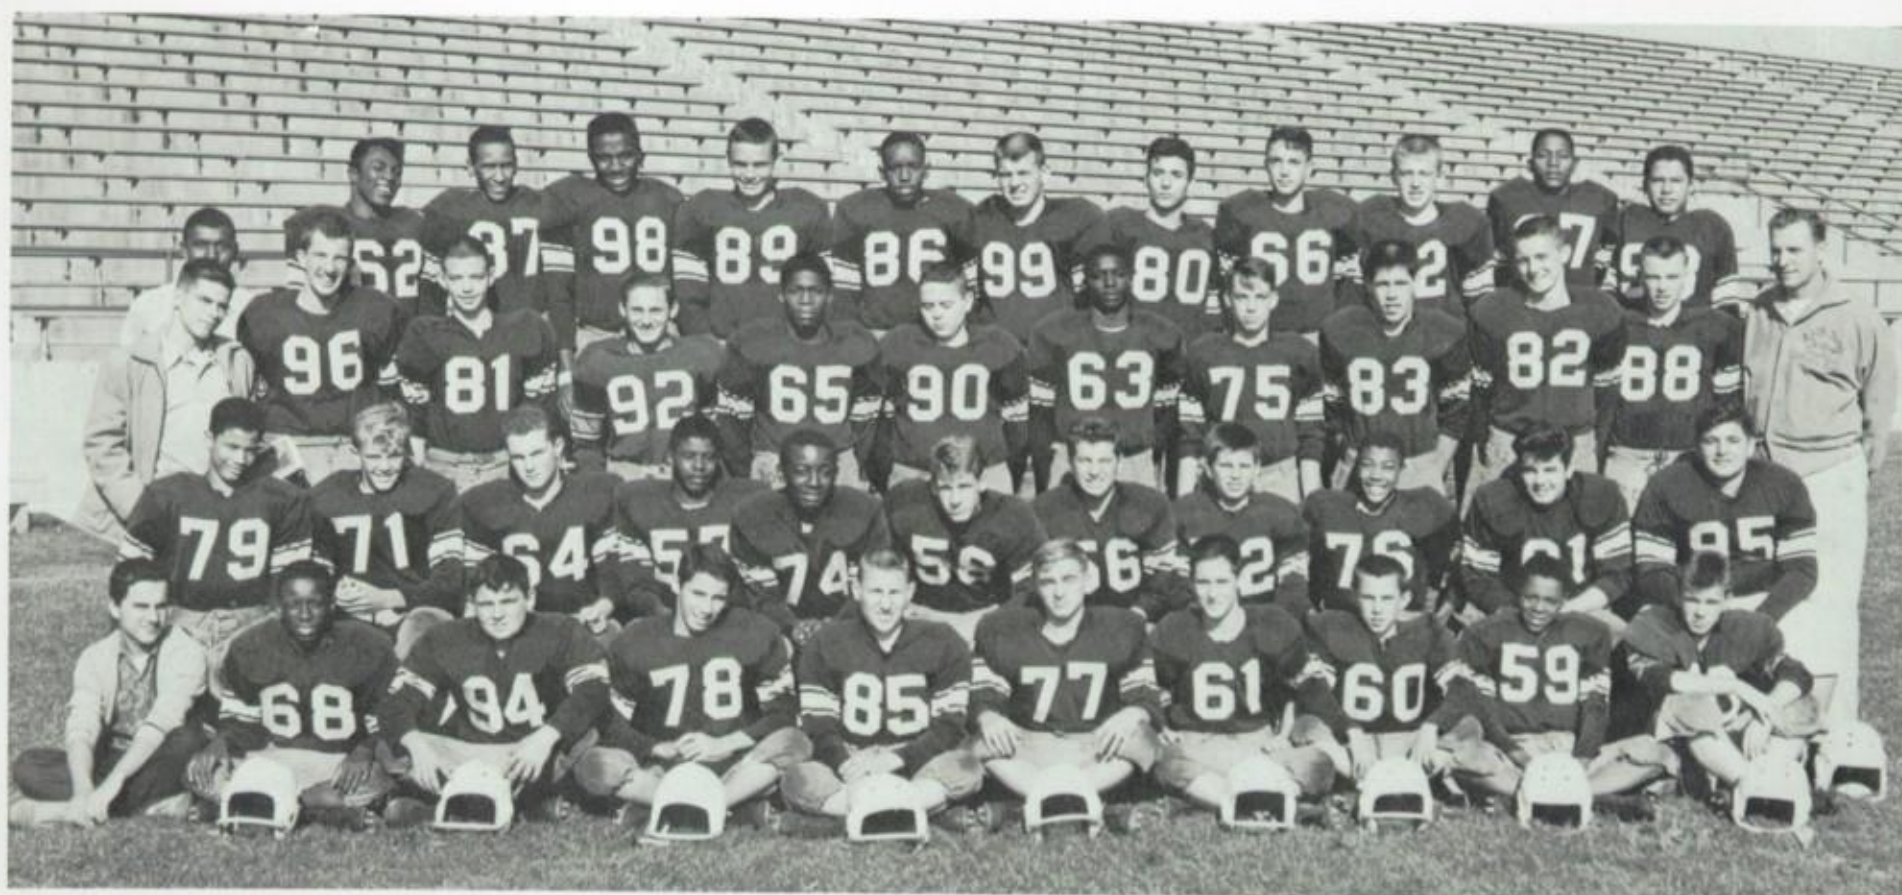

The Bears rebounded from their disappointing loss to Mishawaka to smash Goshen, 26-6. The game was played in a pouring rain, and Central scored all 26 points in the first half. Joe Basker led the attack with two touchdowns. Basker scored on a 44 yard pass interception and on a 29 yard run. A Howard run of 16 yards and a Howard to Foohey pass of 70 yards accounted for the other two touchdowns.

Central, completely dominated Adams, battering them 27-6 in the final game of the season. Sophomore fullback, Fred Kruger, fully recovered from a knee injury, thundered through the middle of the Adams' line on a 44 yard score, for the game's most spectacular run. Joe Basker scored on a 56 yard punt return, on which Central displayed some professional blocking, especially by Mike Foohey. The Howard to Foohey pass, a major worry to area coaches throughout the season, once again proved effective on a 34 yard score.

Coach Bob Jones did a fine job of guiding the team to a successful season. Although a number of varsity players will have graduated, it is expected that he will have a good, solid basis for a new team next year.

Hard running halfback, Joe Basker, is shown making a fine punt return deep into Mishawaka territory during the fourth quarter action. The game was a hard fought battle and victory wasn't conceded to the Cavemen until a pass from Ron Seifert to Dean Howard fell incomplete on the Mishawaka goal-line on the last play of the game. Basker, Howard, Seifert, and Fred Kruger combined to give the Bears one of the most respected backfield in the state.

Here is Central's capable freshman team which finished the season with a 4-5 record under Coach Lou Newbold. The team was victorious over Goshen 19-0, Michigan City 6-0, Elkhart 18-12, and Washington 13-6. They lost to Adams 12-6, Mishawaka 12-0, LaPorte 13-7, Riley 18-0, and St. Joseph 7-6. Although they had a losing season, they outscored their opponents 81-79. The team members are from left to right: first row—N. Gurwitz, P. Skinner, P. Sindlinger, B. Crum, L. Eichorst, L. Martynowicz, L. Schulh, B. Kwiecin-

COMPETITION ROUGH FOR FUTURE PROSPECTS

The 1961 Central Jr. High Football team completed a 3-3 record under head coach Jim Early and assistant coach Bill Gilkey. The team, which underwent rebuilding this year, defeated Center Twp. 19-0, Navarre 27-6, and Coquillard 30-6. They lost games to Oliver 32-0, Madison 7-0, and Muessel 12-0. The players and coaches are from left to right: first row—J. Fleming, M. Tidwell, C. Plumb, D. Manns, J. Lindsey, J. Griffin, G. Dairyko, R. Cromwell, A. Cross; second row—H. Hunes, T. Daniels, B. Hughes, R. Patterson, L.

With a swing of his racket, Central's Baillie Dunlap drives a winning serve. Dunlap finished with an 8 and 1 singles record, and went undefeated with Fred Stone in eight doubles matches.

The tennis season begins the first day of school and continues for a month and a half. Although the Central tennis team swarms Leeper Park when the trees are in bloom, autumn is the time for the all important tennis matches. This fall the club performed satisfactorily, winning seven and losing only two matches to Fort Wayne North Side and to the conference champs, Goshen. Central was runner-up in the conference.

Baillie Dunlap was chosen by Coach Powers as his most valuable player. Baillie functioned very well as third man. As was expected, Gene Klafke showed his superior form as first man. Charles Truett was second; Fred Stone, fourth; and Larry Johns, fifth. Unfortunately all five boys are seniors. Thus, Central will have to face a rebuilding year next fall. Our B-Team's success was mediocre. Since the Team will be comprised mainly of juniors next year, we can look forward to a successful 1963.

The 1962 Central High School Swimming Team, under the direction of Coach Jepsen finished with an excellent season record of 14 wins and a single loss. Besides compiling this outstanding record they placed sixth in the State. First row: Chase, Johns, Veith, Papoi, Grall, Makielski, Stites, Dosmann, Minnes. Second row: Judjahn, Berman,

Practice makes perfect. Mike Grall and Doyle Wright are pictured here at the start of a fifty yard sprint during a practice session. Both Grall and Wright were medal winners in the State Meet. Grall and Wright along with Minnes and Berman placed fourth in the State for the 200 yard freestyle relay. These winners along with seven other medal winners gathered enough points to place sixth in the State. This is the fourth year in a row that Central has placed among the State's ten best teams.

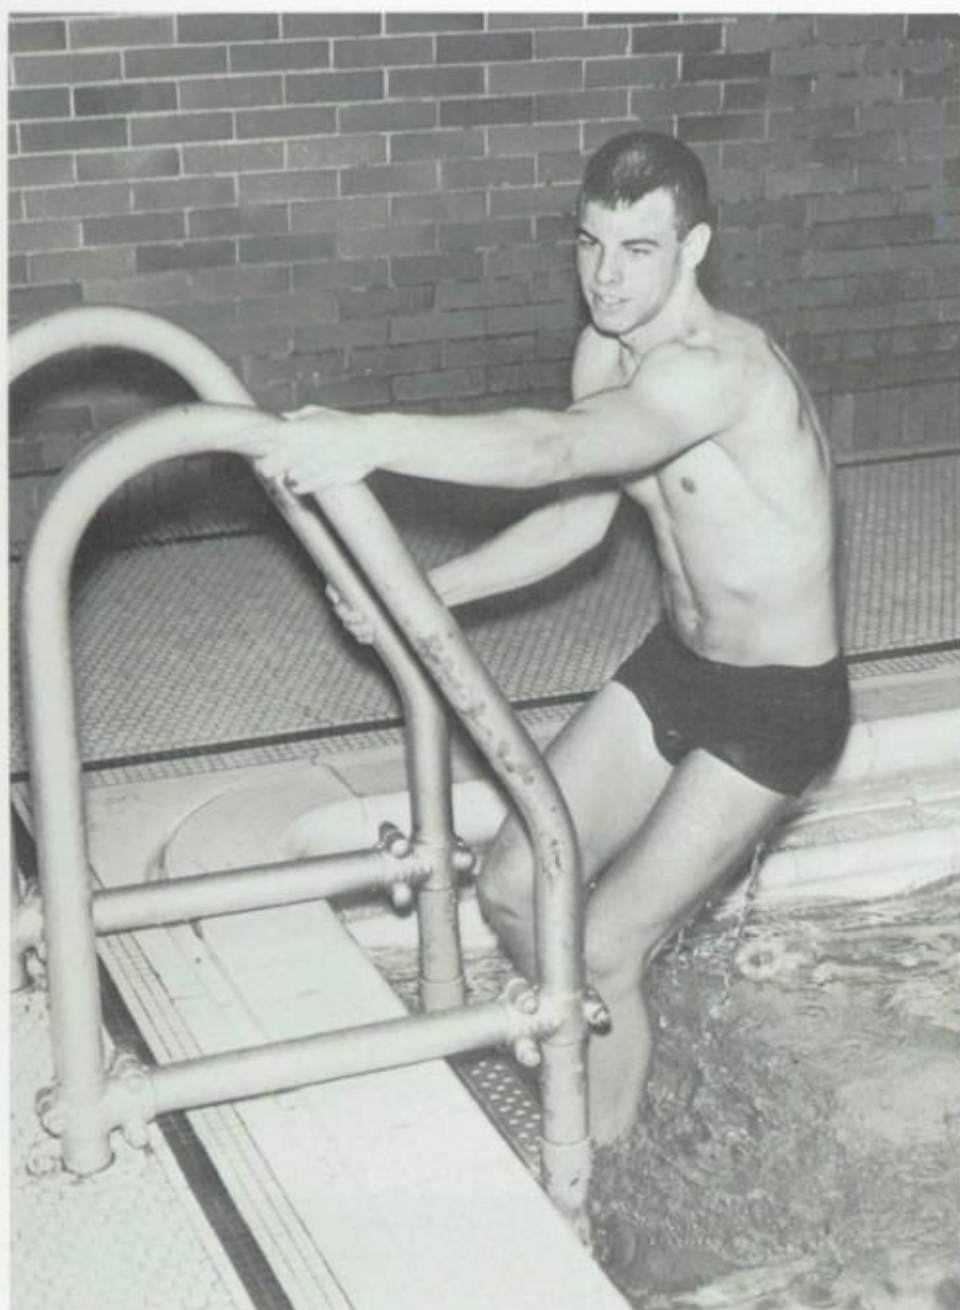

Gerhard Judjahn performs his specialty during the Gary Horace Mann meet. Central was easily victorious 65-28. Judjahn is one of the nine seniors leaving this year. Although all of the seniors were lettermen, Coach Jepsen will still have many fine swimmers remaining to build his new team. The prospects for the coming season look very hopeful for most of the team was made up of underclassmen.

SWIMMERS COMPILE 14-1 RECORD

Tom Underly shows his near perfect form as he executes a swan dive. Tom Underly and Mike Jones ably performed the diving chores. Jones and Underly placed second and third respectively in the City Meet, losing only to State Champion Randy Welch. Mike Jones, only a sophomore, also placed fourth in the state. The divers are important point makers for our swimming team.

Shown here is the Tanker's fine captain, Phil Minnes. Phil proved to be a very capable captain as he led the team to an outstanding season of 14 wins and only one defeat, which was at the hands of Riley, the State Champion.

CAPTAIN MINNES LEADS TEAM.

The 1961-62 swimming team compiled an outstanding record of fourteen wins and one loss in dual meets. Coach Jepsen, at the beginning of the season, did not anticipate a particularly startling winter. However, because of the high morale and fierce determination of the team, and the dynamic leadership qualities of Captain Phil Minnes the Tankers were able to accomplish this excellent showing. The Bears easily "drowned" their first five opponents—Howe Military Academy, St. Joseph of Michigan, Gary Horace Mann, Kokomo, and for the first time in years, Culver Military Academy. Then the Bears met their only defeat when they swam against Riley. But this defeat was not a humiliating one, for Central was the only team that even came close to Riley. The teams were tied when they went into the final relay and when the last gun was shot, and the times checked, they were found to be identical! So the winner was determined by the decision of the judges who declared Riley the victor by a 52-43 score. (Incidentally, Riley later became Indiana State Champions). The Bears went on to win their succeeding meets with little trouble with the exception of Muncie Burris, one in which they needed to take both relays in order to win. But here the fighting, competitive spirit of the Bears became evident for they were able to out-distance the Muncie swimmers and take the meet 55-40. The Bears en-

The Bears boasted a well-balanced distribution of abilities for the individual scorings were somewhat on a par. This was evidenced in the fact that five different records were broken by four separate swimmers. Tom Underly, a senior diver, set a new school diving record for the number of points accumulated in a dual meet. Tom Veith, a sophomore, set a new record in the 400-yard free-style; Denny Geyer, a sophomore, broke his brother's record (Tom Geyer was one of the best swimmers that Central has had in recent years) in the individual medley. This means that each swimmer must use four different strokes—breast stroke, back stroke, butterfly and free style—and swim each style a distance of fifty yards. Bob Boseman, another sophomore, established two new records in the fifty and one hundred yard free style events. Four other boys who helped contribute to Central's strength were Mike Grall, Doyle Wright, Steve Tankersley, and Joel Berman. The Bears, with a nucleus of outstanding underclassmen, are looking forward to a brilliant future.

Two Points! Here John McCullum drops in two points as the Bears romped over Michigan City 68 to 51. Even though John wasn't a usual starter, he ably filled in the gap whenever he was needed.

Many a spectator after viewing a team's spectacular comeback during the second half has wondered what happened during the half time intermission in the dressing room. The coach is pictured here explaining the team's errors and a way to improve their play. The boys readily accept criticism and listen closely to Mr. Powers, so their individual play can be improved.

POWERSMEN TAKE CONFERENCE TITLE

Coach Jim Powers seems to be saying, "Thata' Boy, Ed," as Central's leading scorer leaves the floor for the last time near the close of the Marion game. It was a tremendous climax to his four year basketball career at Central as he led the team with eighteen points, and pulled down many rebounds and did an excellent job on defense.

The Bear's Ed Samelton barely out-jumping the Eagles' Sam Williams is symbolic of the action and final outcome of the Central-Adams contest during the past season; the Eagles playing good, steady ball, but not quite good enough to trip the Bears who won 54-51. The see-saw battle was a thrilling delight to all who witnessed the game. Bill Helkie of Adams was as usual, the shining participant in the contest. Bill performed coolly and effectively under the wary eyes of a host of college scouts.

BEARS TAKE SECTIONAL FOR 3RD TIME IN 4 YEARS

The talent-filled 1961-'62 Central Varsity Basketball Team finished its spectacular season with a 20-5 record. The Bears began their play by romping over St. Joseph (77-44) and Hammond (67-44). They continued their onslaught with straight victories over Ft. Wayne Central, Logansport and Michigan City before suffering their first loss at the hands of top-rated East Chicago Washington (66-65). This game turned out to be one of Central's best team efforts and one of the most exciting games of the year! Central bounced back from this defeat by beating Goshen 65-61. The Bears captured the Holiday Tourney trophy by defeating LaPorte and Washington. Jim Ward took over the hero's role for Central by connecting with a basket and a free throw with only seven seconds left in an overtime to put Central out on top with a 68-66 score against LaPorte. The following week Central again nudged LaPorte, this time in a Conference battle, 48-47. In this game Mike Warren was the hero as he scored 19 points, including a pair of clinching free throws in the final fifteen seconds of play. Central beat Shelbyville before moving to the Adams gym to decide the Eastern Conference leader. Central had to come from behind in the final two minutes to tuck away victory number eleven with a score of 52-49. The following night the Bears met with disaster for they not only lost against the highly touted Muncie Central team, which never led until the final 39 seconds of play, but they also lost star reserve player, John Costello, who suffered a broken leg. The heart-breaking score was 68-65. Trailing by eleven points early in the third quarter, the Bears made up their minds to play ball and won over the fighting Riley Wildcats 57-53. The Bears next blitzed Marion with their thirteenth victory 79-36. Although they took the game, the Bears experienced a real defeat in the loss of their leading scorer and one of their best all-around performers, senior Ed Samelton, who reached his twentieth birthday, thus ending his eligibility. Then playing their first game without Ed, the Bears encountered a grim and determined Washington team, and endured their third loss. The Bears lost again in a wild scramble against Anderson. Dennis Baker of Anderson was fouled under the Central basket by John McCullum as the gun sounded ending the first overtime with the score tied 61-61. Baker hit his free throws making Anderson victorious. The Bears went on to capture their next three games winning against Mishawaka, Fort Wayne North, and Elkhart. In the Elkhart game, the Bears played like a powerhouse and gave promise of being able to sweep through the tourney and cinching the Sectional Crown.

The Bears fulfilled this promise as they defeated St. Joseph, Mishawaka, and Adams. Again the Adams game was a thriller with the Bears winning 54-53 to take the coveted crown! But the following weeks, after edging a surprisingly strong Mentone five, the Bears fell before a revenge seeking Elkhart five 66-62.

Pictured here are the members of the Central Junior High basketball team. Coach Chuck Welch again proved his skill in guiding a basketball team. His teams have lost only seven games. Standing from left to right are J. Claybrooke, L. Thompson, R. Coleman, R. Johnson, W. Powell, K. Atkins, Coach Welch. Sitting from left to right are Mgr. J. Munlin, R. Smith, J. Walker, L.  Northern Indiana Conference: 1st place
 Sectional: 1st place
 Regional: 2nd place
 State: 2nd place

The 1961-1962 varsity wrestlers wrapped up a perfect season against some of the State's toughest teams by winning twelve matches and losing one. Along with a perfect season they also claimed the City Holiday Tournament Wrestling crown, the Eastern Division Conference Title, the Northern Indiana Conference Title, and the Sectional. They placed second in the regional meet and in the state meet held at Indianapolis. The Bears started their season with wins over Logansport and Adams and then went on to defeat the next six opponents. In two of the above mentioned wins the other teams failed to take a match. Next the Holiday Tournament was won handily as we nearly doubled the score of our closest competitor, Riley High School. The Bears had a little trouble during the remainder of the season as their closest match was with Niles, Michigan and the score was Central, 32 — Niles, 18. Individual scoring records according to weight classes, are as follows: 95 pounds Carter Wolfe—11 wins, 3 losses, and City Holiday Tournament champ; 103 pounds Fred Baldwin—14 wins, 3 losses, and Sectional champ; 112 pounds Tom Behling—16 wins, 6 losses; 120 pounds Ollie Bradford—16 wins, 6 losses; 127 pounds Charles Smith—21 wins, 4 losses, City Holiday Tournament champ, and Sectional champ.

Pictured above is co-captain Charles Bush who finished the season with a perfect record of 28 wins and no losses. Bush collected these imposing titles—Champion of the Holiday Tourney Wrestling Meet, Eastern Conference Wrestling Championship, Northern Indiana Conference Championship, Sectional Championship, Regional Championship and State Championship. Bush has been a stalwart on our wrestling team for the past three years and will always be remembered as one of Central's greatest!

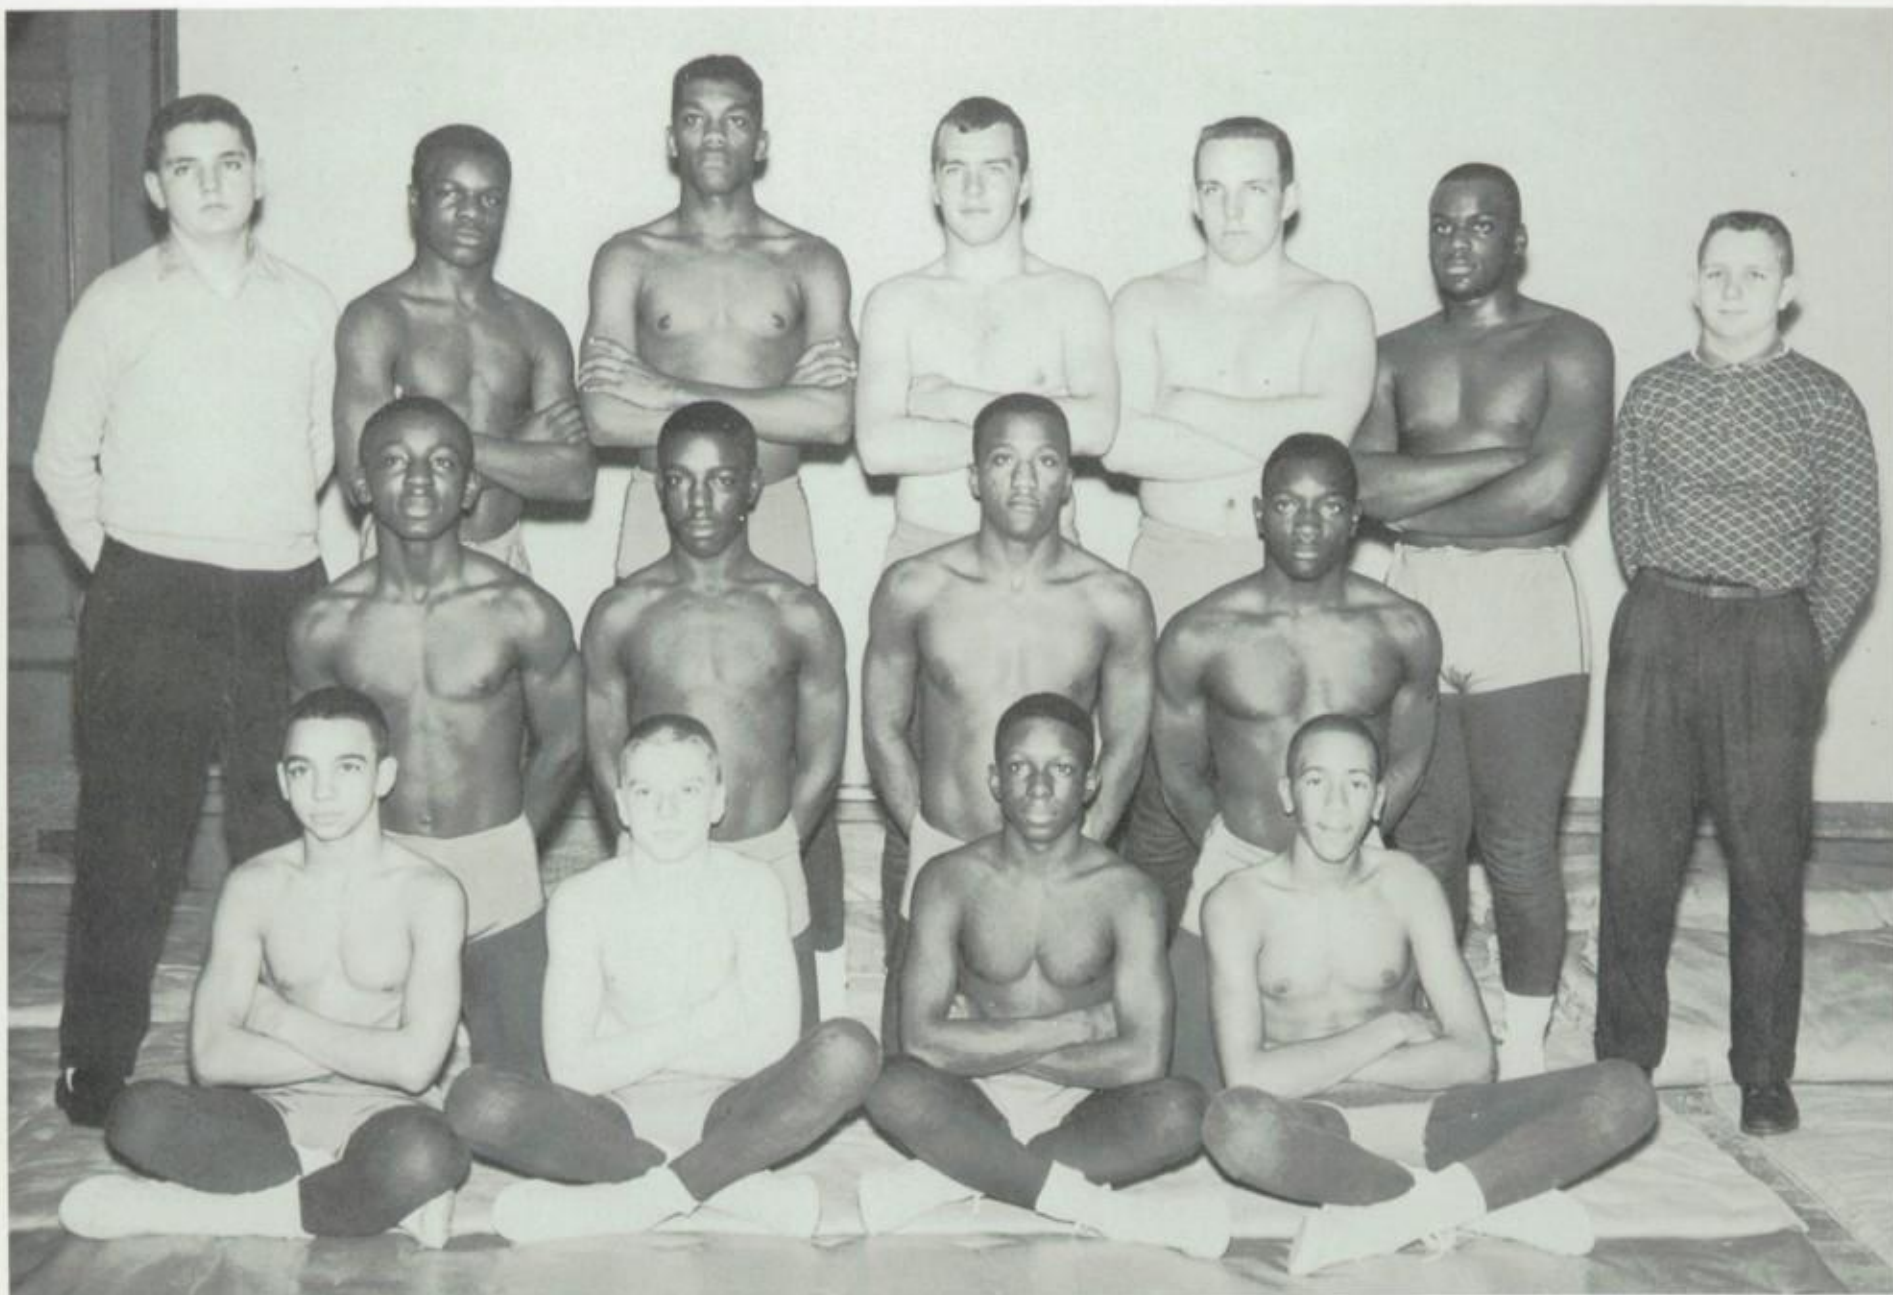

Meet another State Champ in Charles Martin who finished the season with a 26-1 record. He, too, is a title collector for he nabbed a Holiday Tourney Wrestling Championship, Eastern Conference Championship, Northern Indiana Conference Championship, Sectional Championship, Regional Championship and State Championship. Charlie is a junior so we can expect great things from him next year!

MARTIN; BUSH -- STATE CHAMPIONS

Other individual records are: 133 pounds Gene King—23 wins, 3 losses, City Holiday Tournament champ, Sectional champ, Regional champ, Eastern Division Conference champ, and fourth in State; 138 pounds Tom McRae—10 wins, 7 losses; 145 pounds Steve Nice—17 wins, 6 losses, City Holiday Tournament champ, NIHSC champ, Sectional champ; 154 pounds Charles Bush—28 wins, no losses, Eastern Division Conference champ, NIHSC champ, City Holiday Tournament champ, Sectional champ, Regional champ, State champ; 165 pounds Charles Martin—26 wins, 1 loss, Eastern Division Conference champ, NIHSC champ, City Holiday Tournament champ, Sectional, Regional, and State champ; 175 pounds Mike Hall—17 wins, 5 losses, City Holiday Tournament champ; heavyweight Mike Foohey—13 wins, 6 losses, City Holiday Tournament champ. This fine record can be attributed to the skillful leadership and dedicated interest of Coach Szucs. Co-captains are Gene King and Charles Bush, who attributed their share to the success and high morale of the team. Not only are their personal records and accomplishments high, but they were always willing to help and encourage fellow team mates. Although Coach Szucs will be losing seven seniors, he will be able to turn to Mr. McNarney's reserves with hope and confidence.

Co-captain Gene King finished the season with a 23-3 record and was a Holiday Tourney Champ, Eastern Conference Champ, Sectional Champ, Regional Champ and fourth in the State.

Pictured above are the members of Central's "B" team Wrestlers. Reading from left to right, beginning with the bottom row, are G. Riakiatake, E. Ackerman, P. Skinner, and C. Jones. Second row: C. Price, P. Dawning, W. Jones, and J. Martin. Top row: Mgr. P. Sindlinger, J. Lewis, W. Stafford, T. Jennings, S. Mitchell, R. Hetteson, and Mgr. M. Berry. These boys have gone undefeated for the past two years and have compiled a record of nine wins, no losses and one tie. Their coach, who is not included in the above picture, is Mr. John McNarney. The "B" Team Wrestlers also won the Holiday Tourney Wrestling Meet.

B-TEAM UNDEFEATED FOR 2ND STRAIGHT YEAR

For the second straight year the Central "B" Team Wrestlers, under the direction of Coach John McNarney, have gone undefeated. The only blight on their perfect record was this year's tie with Elkhart. So the "B's" record for the past two seasons would total nineteen wins, no losses and one tie. They also were champions of the City Holiday Tournament. Two of this year's wins were shut-outs. One was against Adams with Central scoring 46 points, and the other was against Penn, 52-0. Other scores were Central 42, Washington 6; Central 43; Logansport 8; Central 46, LaFayette 5; Central 37, Riley 9. Some individuals who turned in outstanding performances included George Riakiatake, who wrestled in the 97 pound class, finished the season with a 7-0 record, and at times wrestled varsity. Other performers and their records were Wesley Jones, 9-1; Paul Dawning, 6-1; Charles Price, 7-1-1; Jim Martin, 10-0; Tom Jennings, 10-2; and Ronnie Hetteson, 6-0. All of these boys were city champions in their respective weight classes. It looks as though Central's habit of being Wrestling Champion is here to stay.

"And they're off." Shown is the familiar sight of the beginning of a cross country meet. Returning to the finish line, however, they will be well-scattered. At this particular triangular meet the Bears lost to Adams by a score of 21 to 36 but tied Washington, 28 to 28.

John McNarney and Chuck Welch. Kneeling are M. Evans, F. Kruger, J. Jennings, T. Voogd, J. Snyder, G. Clarke, B. McRae, Managers J. Morrison and R. Swiatowy. Sitting are J. Basker, A. Kristowski, B. Blohm, P. Jones, R. Lizzi, R. Komaskinski, D. Howard, and G. Grzegorek.

The 1961 Central Baseball Team, directed by Coach Lou Newbold, had a fine record of 10 wins and 5 losses. The Bruins unfortunately started off very slowly, losing their first three starts in a row, two of them to Washington and the other to Riley. The Bears soon bounced back to even their record out at 3 and 3, defeating Goshen, Michigan City, and Mishawaka. The Bruins were then set back by the Adams' Eagles in a very close game which ended with Central on the short end, 3 to 2. Our Bears then got on a winning track, defeating their next six opponents in order; downing Niles, Elkhart, and winning both games of a double header against St. Joe. Two other victories over Adams and Riley avenged earlier losses to both teams. The Bears then lost the last game they were to lose during the regular season to LaPorte. The Bears rounded out the regular season with a 5 to 0 shutout against Mishawaka. The win over the Maroons enabled the Bears to capture the conference championship.

After the regular baseball season was completed, the city tournament began. Central, the defending champs, qualified for the championship game by shutting out Riley 2-0. In the final game of the tournament Central played the St. Joe Indians. A three run rally in the seventh inning by Central forced the game into extra innings. St. Joe emerged victorious in the next inning, however, to close an exciting and successful baseball season for Central.

BASEBALL BEARS BRING HOME CONFERENCE TITLE

Shown here is a Riley batter in the first game of the City Tournament. Central went on to defeat Riley 2 to 0, only to lose in the final game to St. Joe. Catching for Central is Jim Snyder, Central's fine power hitter. Central's outlook is very bright. Eleven of the 1961 team will return to help Coach Lou Newbold build his new team.

Safe! Here Bob Blohm crosses first safely in a conference game against Michigan City. The Bears eventually won the game 5-4. Bob's great speed enabled him to beat out many close plays; he led the team in stolen bases. This win, in addition to five other conference wins, enabled the Bruins to win the conference.

Home run! Powerful Jim Snyder smashes a long two run homer in the first inning. The Bears went on to bomb the Maroons 11-1. This was Jim's second of three he hit during the season. Jim's clutch hitting was often the difference in a closely fought game. It was Jim's seventh inning homer that brought Central the 1960 city championship.

The 1961 Central High School Track Team completed the season with an unimpressive 3 win 8 loss record. CINDERMEN FINISH WITH 3-8 RECORD;

Pictured here are Head Coach Early and his assistant, Coach Gilkey. Coach Early has led Central to seven city crowns since he became coach of Central's Track Team. Mr. Early deserves the congratulations of the entire student body.

Our 1961 Central Track Team, having to undergo a rebuilding process, experienced the worst season in many a year, finishing with a 3-8 record. The future looks very bright for the coming season for only a handful of regular runners have graduated.

The Cindermen started the season very strongly, getting all three of their victories in their first three starts. St. Joe was our first victim, being nosed out by just $\frac{1}{3}$ of a point, $54\frac{2}{3}$ to $54\frac{1}{3}$. We next defeated Penn $71\frac{1}{4}$ to $37\frac{3}{4}$. This was one of the few bright spots of the season. Our third and final win was over Washington-Clay. After this encouraging start the team departed from its winning ways, losing the remaining eight meets. The first of the eight was to Michigan City. The next two defeats were in a triangle meet with Washington and Warsaw. Washington, with this lopsided victory, avenged the string of victories compiled over a seven year period by the Bears over all of the city schools. These two defeats evened our record out at 3-3. Then a strong LaPorte team handed us our fourth defeat in a row. Elkhart was the next foe to defeat the Bears 79 o 30. Adams with another strong team clobbered our unimpressive Bears 92 to 11. The Bears could do no better in their final two meets, being defeated by both Riley and Mishawaka. After the regular season was completed, the Bears were ready to defend their city title which they had so proudly held for seven consecutive years. They were unsuccessful in defending the title. This was the first time an Early coached team had ever lost a city tournament, or had ever lost to a city school.

Bang! As the starting gun of the 880 yard relay sounds. Tom Sergeant blasts out of his starting block against a runner from Mishawaka. After an encouraging start, Tom injured his leg during the season and ruined his chances to continue. Mishawaka eventually won this meet by a score of 82-27.

Up, up and over goes Rick Sparks, one of Central's finest pole vaulters, as he executes his specialty in perfect form, easily clearing the bar. Rick, only a sophomore this year, will return with many other fine underclass Tracksters to help Coach Jim Early build another fine track team next season.

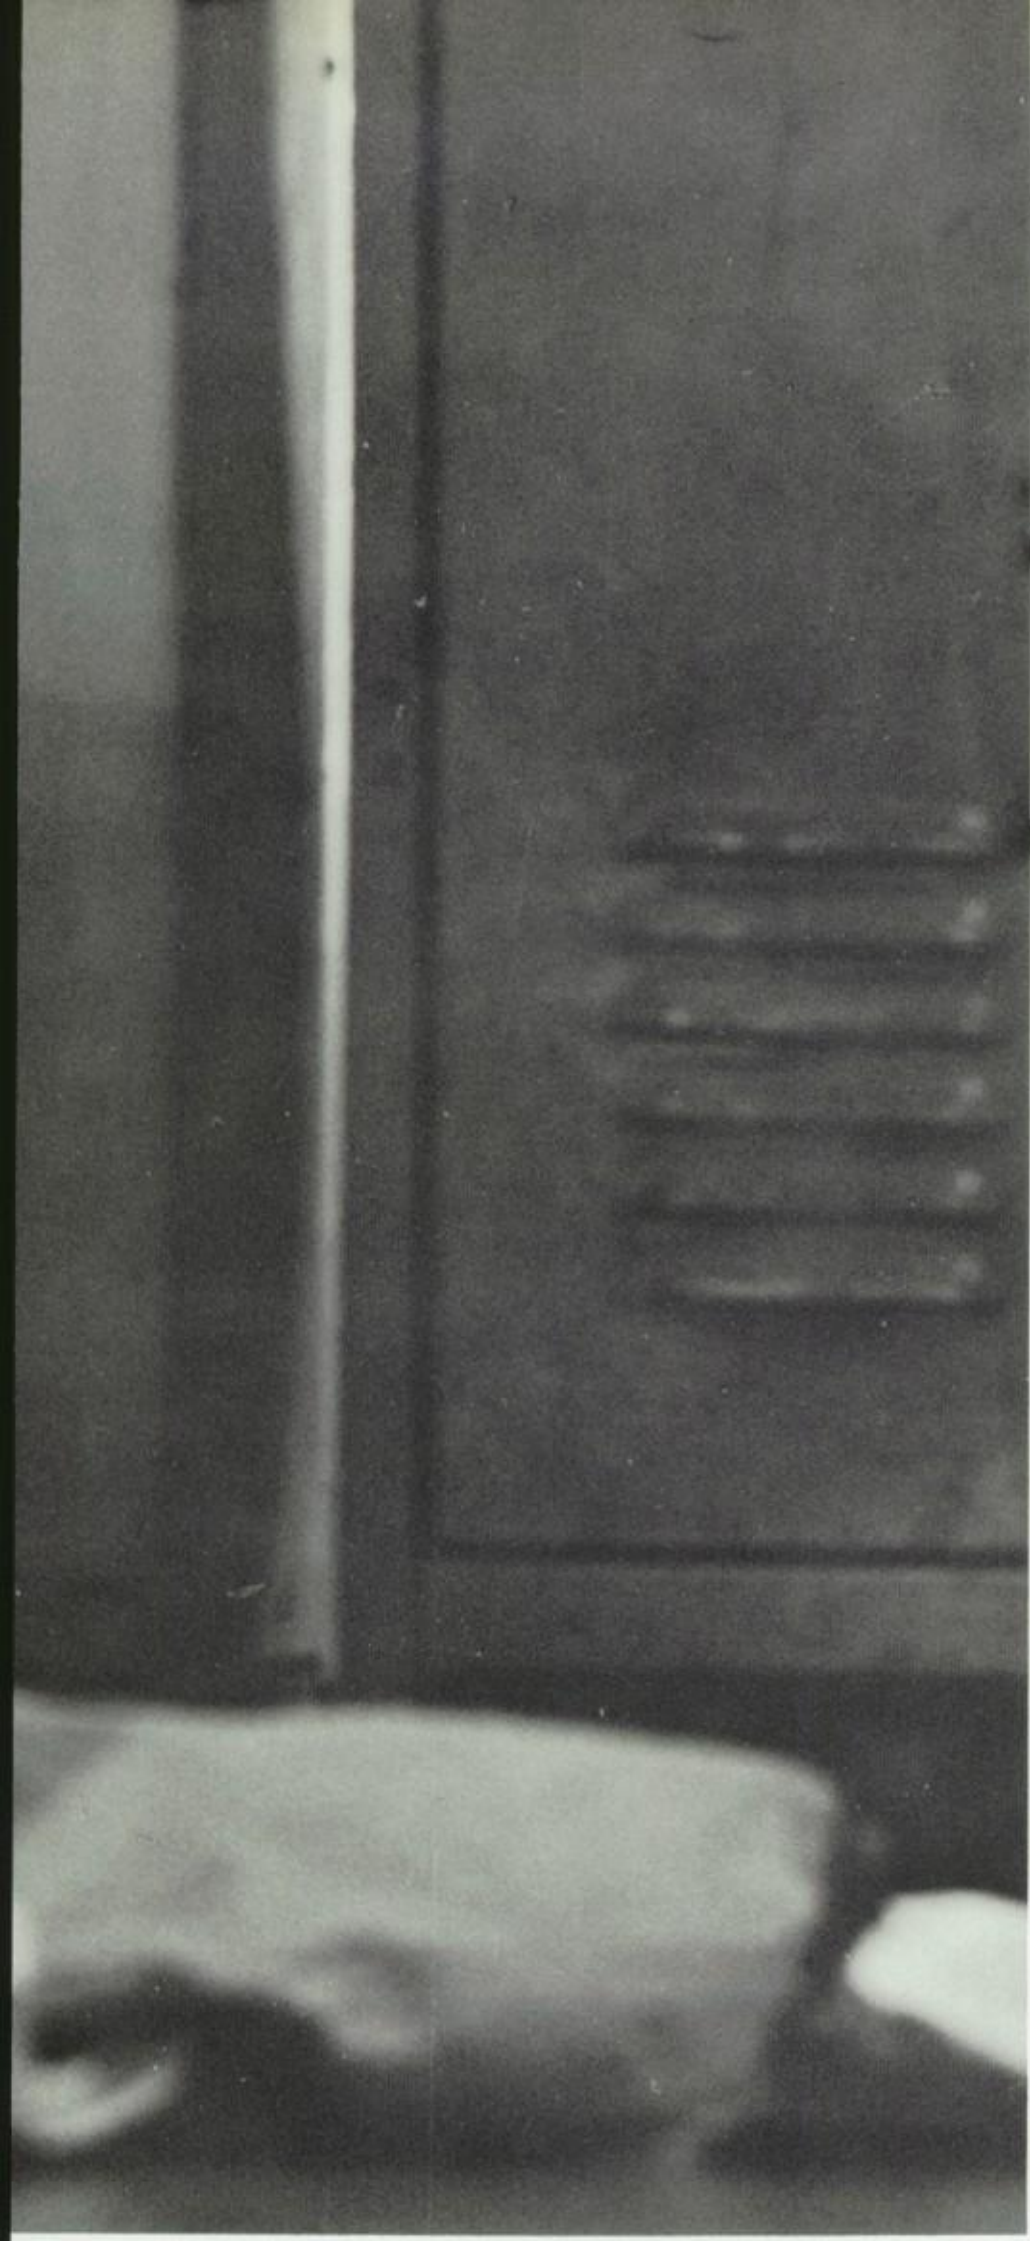

Shown here is high-stepping Fred Schultz as he clears the final hurdle just inches ahead of the Mishawaka runner. Fred used his tremendous height to his advantage in winning many a race. Fred, a senior, was one of Central's best point producers.

Faculty

Youth is alive, and once we too were young Dreamed we could make the world all over new,
Tossed eager projects lightly from the tongue,
And hoped the hurrying years would prove them true.

G. Bradford

The effectiveness of any school depends upon the principal; Central's heritage is focused on an interest in a great variety of educational opportunities and student activities. Mr. Ferrell encourages such a school by his genuine enthusiasm, by his sincere interest and understanding, and by his tireless attendance at all extra-curricular activities.

Mr. Ferrell's most impressive quality is the consideration he shows every individual. No matter how occupied he might be, he is always available to every student; no matter how trivial a problem might seem, he is a willing and sympathetic listener. The solutions that he suggests are always fair and unusually clear and straightforward.

Each student at Central recognizes Mr. Ferrell as Central's number one booster, as a dedicated educator, and, perhaps most meaningful of all, as a good friend.

A face familiar to all Central students is that of Mr. Richard, our assistant principal. Mr. Richard's main job is the attendance department, which keeps him continually busy. He is responsible for determining Central's future enrollment, checking absences, tardies, truancies, and issuing exit passes. Mr. Richard also takes over the principal's duties whenever Mr. Ferrell is ill or out of town. After school hours Mr. Richard finds time to relax with his hobby of photography.

Mr. Richard received his Bachelor's degree from LaCrosse State Teachers' College, and his Master's from Indiana University; he also has done some work at the University of Hawaii.

The duties of running a school are so numerous that Central Junior High School has its own principal, Mr. E. E. Barnbrook. He has the difficult task of supervising the seventh and eighth grades in the building connected to the senior high school.

In his leisure time, Mr. Barnbrook remains very busy with his photography and reading. During the summer months he also enjoys traveling. Mr. Barnbrook received his Bachelor's degree from Purdue University and later earned his Master's from Indiana University.

Mr. Vermont C. Harter is the Head Counselor and Director of the Guidance Department. Mr. Harter and the Guidance Department strive to help the student choose the subjects which will best aid him in attaining his life's ambition. The majority of Central's students, however, don't really become acquainted with Mr. Harter until their senior year. As a senior, the student must decide whether or not to go on to college, and if he decides he will, he must then decide what school would be best for him. Mr. Harter gives the seniors helpful advice and supplies them with college catalogues and brochures. He also tells them the type of scholarships which are available.

Mr. Harter earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the University of Notre Dame.

TEACHERS RELATE THE EXCITEMENT OF HISTORY

"En garde!" shouts Mr. Hoyer, assuming his most vicious glare. And as we can see, his history class is transfixed with fear. Visual aids such as these Civil War memos make a class not only enjoyable but also realistic.

Mr. Chapman has successfully directed our Glee Club for the past year. His tireless efforts have produced beautiful results and have added much to the students' enjoyment of good music.

SCHOLARS OF DISTINCTION

This year Central High School honors four of its seniors for their outstanding scholastic accomplishments. Three of these young people have achieved the rank of valedictorians, and the fourth has earned the rank of salutatorian. These students have achieved great honors for four years of determined study and effort.

DIANNE HALEY
Valedictorian

MARY JAY HRUSKA
Salutatorian

These seven honor students, Jim Ackert, Barbara Harnisch, Denny Mishler, Carolyn Harris, David Martin, Nancy Harris, and Jeff Perkins, along with many other interested seniors can be seen almost anytime looking at the bulletin board outside Mr. Harter's Office. This board contains valuable information concerning the visits of college representatives and other material important for future plans.

The senior class has always been associated with achievement; this year is no different than any other. Members of the 12A group are the leaders of the student body; the leadership of Central's various clubs and activities often lie in senior hands. Seniors often bring honors to the school through both academic and athletic awards.

One of the highlights of the year for the senior class is the presentation of the senior play. This year's play "Sand and Steel" was not only played by Central students, but was actually written by them. The production, which dealt with industry and the dunes of Lake Michigan, required a great deal of work by class members. In the spring the seniors end their activities with the Senior Prom and, of course, the long-awaited graduation ceremonies.

This year is the last in which there will be a 13B class; after these hardy remnants of assorted administrative changes graduate, 13B's will never again romp through the halls, gleefully thinking about their one or two daily classes.

The mid-semester class has conducted their business like any other; they have elected officers, and have taken part in all of the activities offered at Central. At times their classification has been an aid, at other times they have suffered.

The majority of the activities of 13B's are the same as those of the regular senior class; they take part in the senior play, attend the senior prom, and enjoy senior privileges in buying tournament tickets. At the end of the school year, the 13B's will graduate with the 12A's, and take part in the same ceremonies.

Shown here are the senior B and A class officers looking over various samples of graduation announcements. The Senior B class officers, from left to right are Doug Ogden, president; Linda Woodard, secretary; Ronnie Norsworthy, vice-president; and Carolyn Sacchini, treasurer. Senior A class officers are Ethel Sanders, secretary; Mike Hall, president; Margie Schultz, treasurer; and Al Kristowski (not pictured), vice-president.

"Will this do?" asks Ted Mason. The missing object is DeeDee Kern's boot which was lost in the mad after-school shuffle. After removing some camouflage, they may find the lost article in a very unlikely spot on the top of the locker.

"There will be a junior class executive board meeting this morning in the cafeteria," announces John Costello, the president of the junior class. From left to right, we find Sherry Walsh, vice-president; Jack Papay, treasurer; and Marge Badowski, secretary; assisting John with his announcement.

TEMPUS FUGIT, JUST ONE MORE YEAR.

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y . . . that's the Junior Battlecry. As juniors, we seek victory in the classroom, in extra curricular activities, and within ourselves. We have finally reached the heights of upper-classmen and look with anticipation toward the privileges and responsibilities offered to us. We try to excel in class, knowing that our future depends on what we learn today. During pep assemblies or any sports event, the noisy and peppy voices of the junior class join together with their fellow students to sing out the school song proudly. Highlighting the year was the Junior Prom. An aura of excitement and anticipation prevailed while class officers and committee members devotedly planned the big event. All seemed worthwhile, however, when on a beautiful night in April, the Junior Class presented their memorable Junior Prom. Our junior year has made us realize our goals and ambitions and has moved us further on the road to becoming mature adults. After a fantastic junior year, we look forward to the best of all . . . our senior year.

Jackie Barcome, Denny Makielski, Donna Moerdyk, and Pete Papoi seem to be enjoying a quick glance at their new class rings. Becoming upper-classmen is an exciting phase of their high school career. It gives them the right to look forward to the next two years with an abundance of anxiety. Right now they are probably anticipating all of the exciting events that are coming in their junior year. Thoughts of the junior prom and the work that will go into it are running through their minds as they look at the rings which will be their means of remembering all of the fun-filled days they had at Central.

The freshman class officers get into the swing of things by spending an evening at the basketball game. Mike Reed, vice president; Jill Kenna, secretary; Mike Johns, treasurer; and Denny Bankowski, president, appear here at the concession stand. They are looking for some food to give them energy to endure the second half of the game. It's possible, though, that they're just thinking of all the new experiences they have encountered this year and of all the exciting events to come in the future.

"Practice makes perfect." These are just six of the Junior High students practicing for the annual Spring Music Festival. These students are also members of the Junior High Glee Club which was organized by Mr. Miller. Participants in the Glee Club realize that hard work and interest are necessary if the organization is to become a success. They are rewarded, however, when they sing at various Junior High activities. Practicing here are, from left to right, Kenneth Blount, Jerald Vancik, Ronnie Green, Judy Harris, Barbara Kadzielski, and Sarah Zellers.

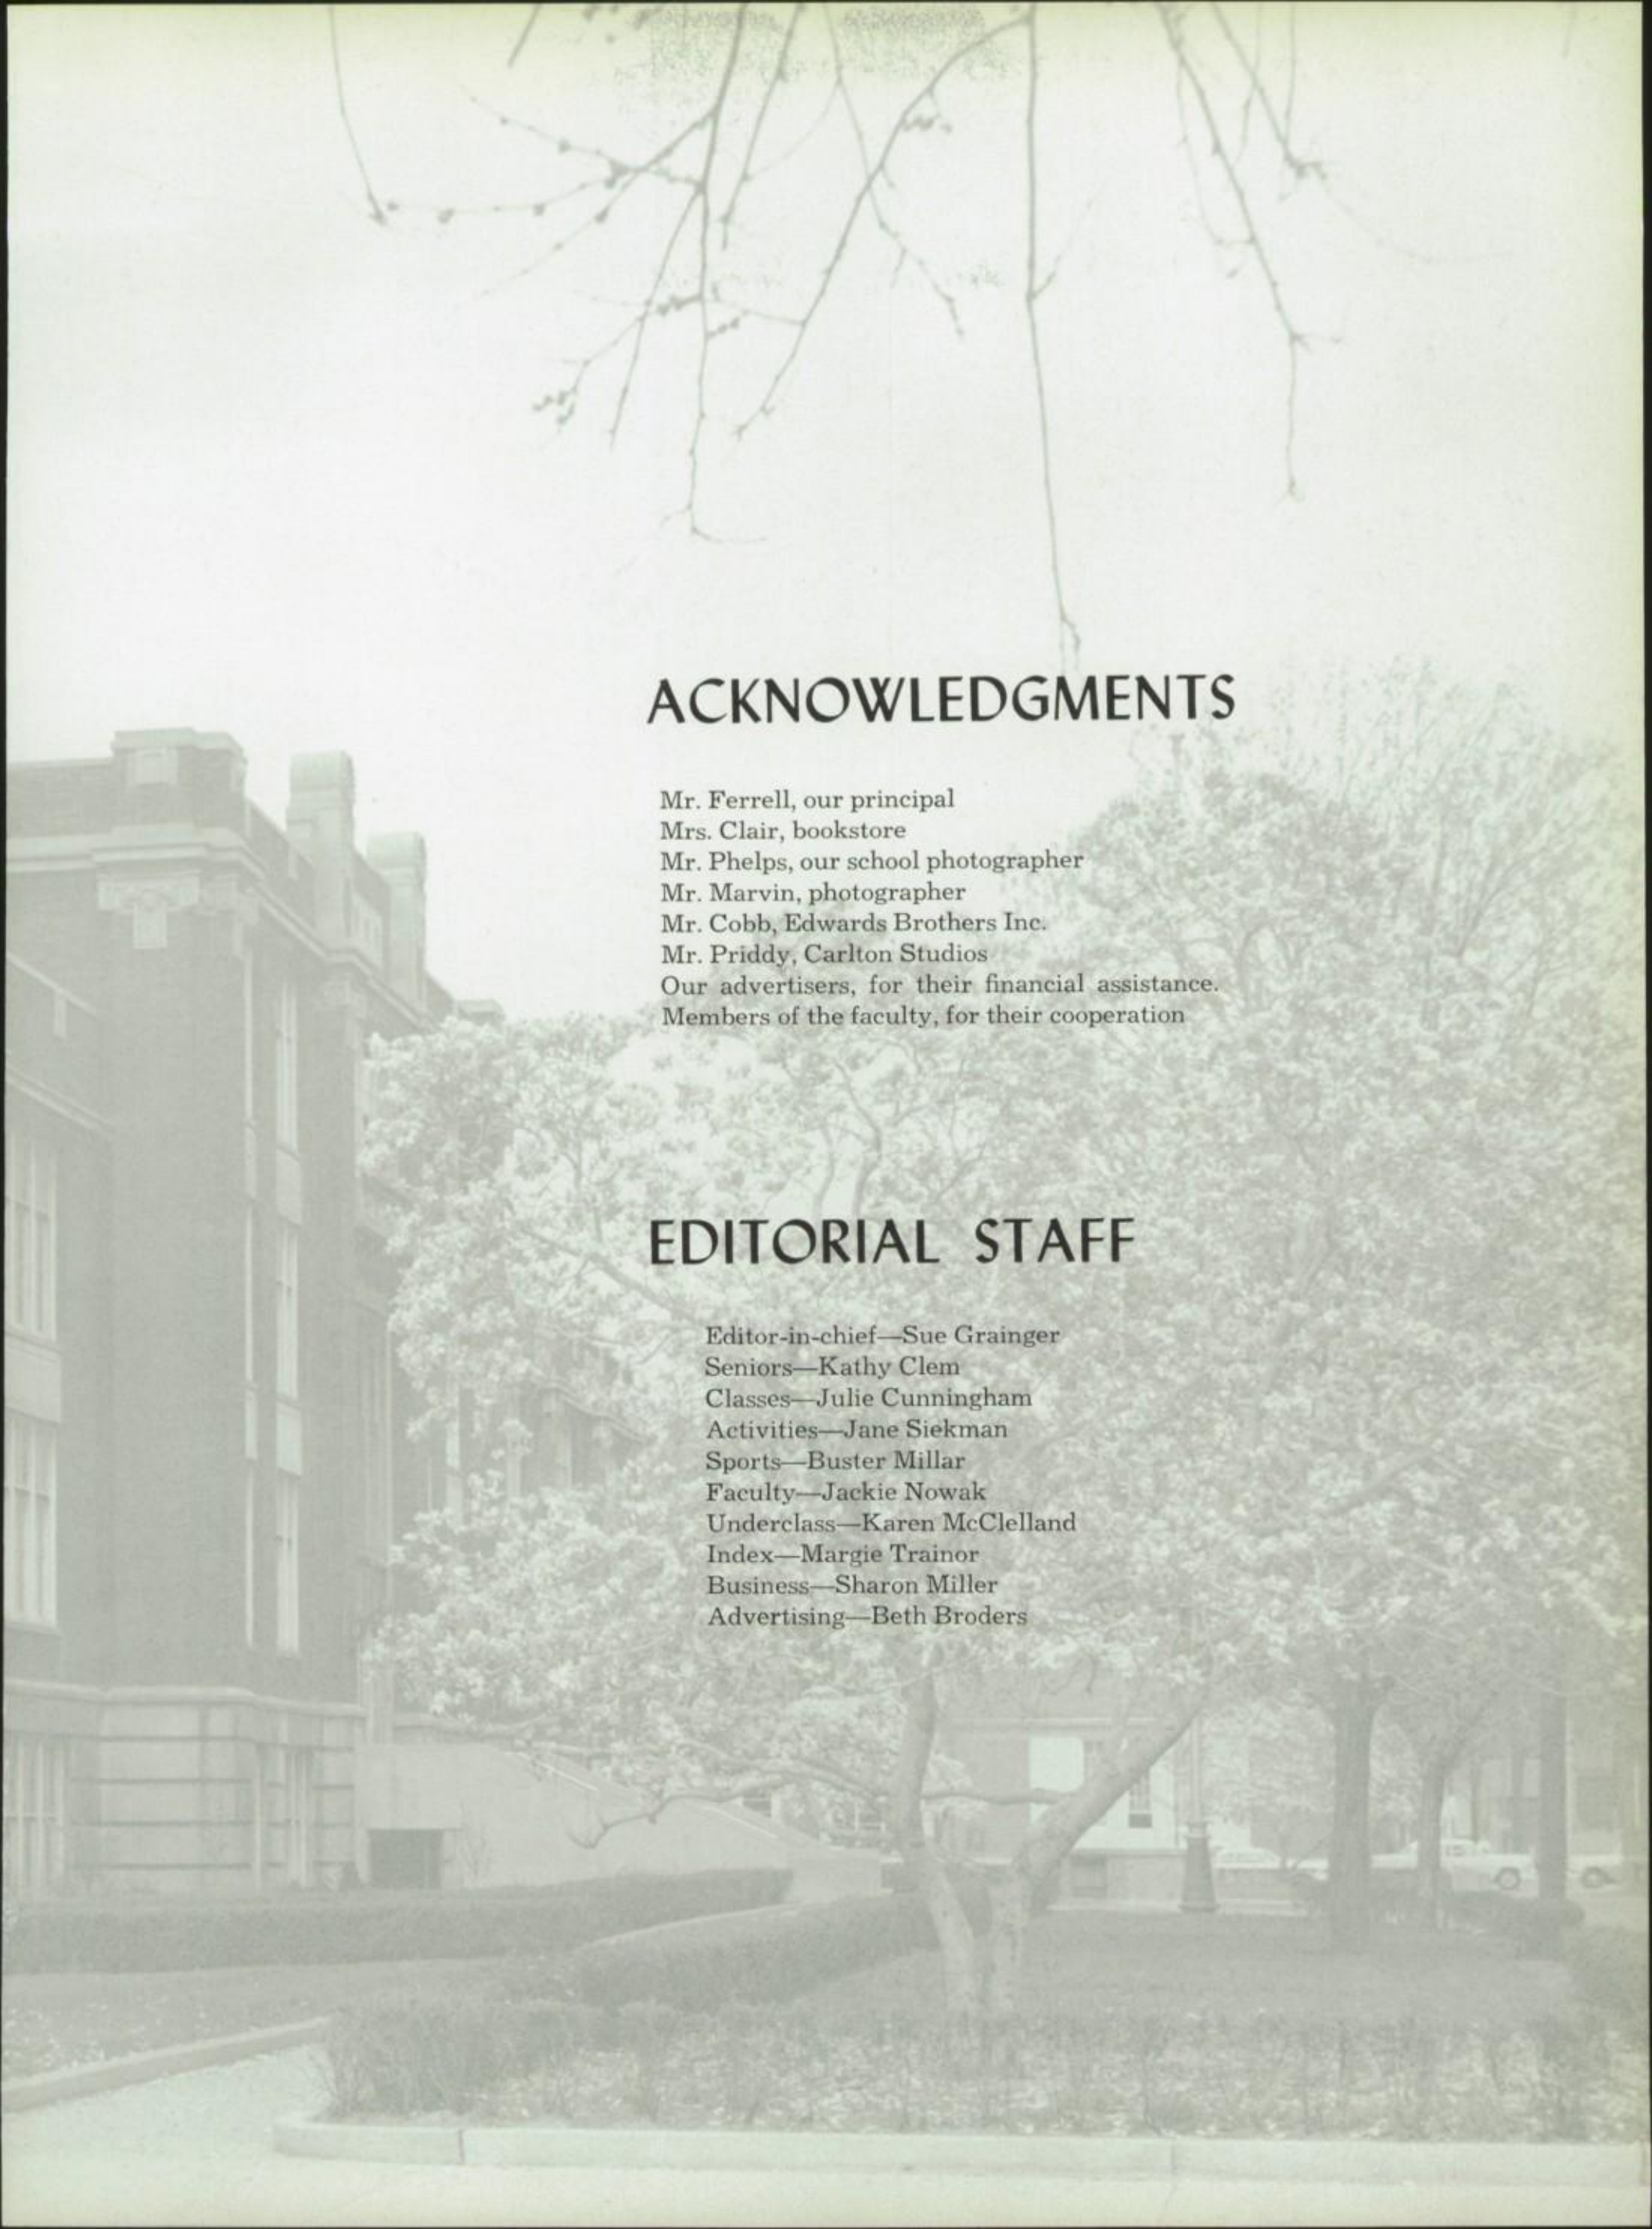

The wise man said: "Be true to the dreams of thy youth." And this was above all not a statement of fact. It was, instead, a challenge, and as a challenge to our young lives we have met it for this year.

We upheld our scholastic excellence; we studied in preparation for future life; and we engaged in the activities related to the fields of our major interests. We met the challenge of keeping faith, by supporting Central High School, by upholding our own standards and ideals, by nourishing our minds and souls with the understanding of real people and their world. We met this challenge of building upon our dreams by planning for college, by engaging in practice training for our future occupations, and by preparing ourselves each day for better things tomorrow.

We intend to meet the same challenge in years to come. And why? Will dreams indeed become more than dreams, life more than empty reality? We do not know. For now we can only dream, and be true to our dreams, and keep faith in them, and build upon them, and answer the sage's challenge, not with remote promises and generalities, but with greater achievements tomorrow. Then on that day—that tomorrow day—each of us can face his own small world, his very self. Each can look back in satisfaction and pledge again to life and dreams . . . I will be true . . . I will keep faith . . . And I will build . . . I will.

A faded, sepia-toned photograph of a school building with a large tree in the foreground, serving as the background for the page.

John
A real swell guy whose a real bad to be around and have in class. Best of luck
"you'll be in the future"
"you'll mend it"
